Light Plane Crash Kills 2 LAFB Men

Smacks Field Near Crete

. . . EXPLODES, THEN BURNS

By Roger Wait

Crete—Two Lincoln Air Force Base officers died instantly northwest of here about 5:25 p.m. Wednesday afternoon in the fiery crash of their light plane.

They were identified early Thursday by LAFB officials as:

1st Lt. Paul G. Bugoni, 24, of 3470 Orchard.

1st Lt. Donald E. Hitchcock, 25, of Charlotte, N.C.

Hitchcock was piloting the plane. Both were co-pilots of aerial KC-97 tankers of the 98th Air Refueling Squadron.

Officials said ther light plane departed LAFB at 5:10 p.m. on a local flight.

Eyewitness George Havlek saw the crash from his tractor. He farms land adjacent to the rain-muddied wheat field into which the plane fell.

500 Feet

Havlek said he saw the single-engine, two-passenger, Air Force-owned T-34 slowly pass directly over his head, at an altitude of about 500 feet.

"The engine was running smooth," he said, adding that the weather was "quite clear" with a gentle breeze.

Heading northeast, the craft then went into a steep right turn and dived straight into the ground, Havlek said.

He didn't see it actually hit earth in a 15-foot deep draw.

The plane exploded with a "poof" and sent a mushroom-like cloud of fire and smoke into the late afternoon sky.

Havlek said he drove his tractor to the fence, dismounted and walked to the crash scene but couldn't get within 25 feet because of hot flames that leaped 35 feet in the air.

Black Smoke

The black smoke, he said, could be seen from miles away.

Another nearby farmer who saw the crash, Emil Pomajzl, arrived at the scene as Havlek did.

Mrs. Pomajzl called the Crete Fire Department. The volunteer firemen were on the scene within 15 minutes after the alarm.

They extinguished the hot fire which was fed by high-octane aviation gasoline and structural magnesium, a highly combustible light metal.

The plane crashed about two miles north and 2½ miles east of Crete, in a recently harvested wheat field, about 750 feet from a county road.

The impact was on land owned by John Wilage, and farmed by Ed Belka, Saline County Sheriff John Tesar said.

Cause of the crash was undetermined, LAFB officials said.

Base officials "commended the law enforcement agencies for their handling of the security and the crowds at the scene of the accident."

Commendation

A "special commendation" was handed Saline County Sherriff John Tesar, Crete Fire Chief Alvin Rozdalovsky and their men.

Also helping were the Nebraska Safety Patrol, Lincoln police and Lancaster County sheriff's deputies.

The plane was totally demolished. It dug a hole 4 feet deep and 10 to 12 feet in diameter in the soggy field.

The plane had been loaned to the LAFB SAC Aero Club by the Air Force.

Aero Club President Maj. Olen D. Sheperd said one of the dead officers was a member of the club; the other was not.

Shepard said the Aero Club is "an organization at LAFB for recreational flying by civil-licensed pilots."

80 Members

Composed primarily of military personnel, the club has 80 members who "fly in their off-duty time," Shepard added.

The $45,000 plane was loaned the club in October 1959, the major added, and "was converted to civilian configurations."

Its cruising speed is 170 mph and has a range of 500 miles.

Also on hand to investigate were several LAFB officials, State Aeronautics Director Jack Obbink, and Melvin Wood, district safety officer of the Federal Aviation Agency.

Lt. Bugoni is survived by his wife, Marilyn, and daughter, Deborah, age two.

Parents

Lt Hitchcock's survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hitchcock of 1922 Birchcrest Dr., Charlotte, N.C.

The state's 1960 airplaine crash toll rose to 5.

1st Lt. K. G. Van Sickle died July 25 in the crash of a T-33 jet trainer at Offutt AFB near Omaha.

Sumner Burnham Jr., 24, and Floyd Warren, 23, both of York, were killed in a light plane crash near Fairmont June 20.

Two LAFB air policemen were mounting guard on the Crete crash scene early Wednesday.

Virus Effect On Governor's Heart Tested

. . . BROOKS RESTING WELL

By Betty Person

Governor Ralph Brooks was reported as looking "much better" Wednesday evening at Lincoln General Hospital where he is being treated for a virus condition which has affected his heart.

Robert Conrad, administrative assistant to the governor, made the report following a visit with the chief executive.

Conrad reported the governor's physician as saying he was "encouraged" and that the governor is "still resting comfortably."

Normal

Brooks' blood pressure and temperature were reported to be normal and he is on a soft diet.

The exact nature and effect of the infection on the governor's heart will be known following tests which should be completed Thursdty.

Gov. Brooks was taken to the hospital by ambulance Tuesday evening.

Conrad reported the governor had attended the Conference on Aging at Omaha Monday and Tuesday even though he did not feel well.

Called Doctor

Upon his return to Lincoln Tuesday he still did not feel well and his personal physician was called to check him.

Tuesday evening the physician ordered that he should be hospitalized.

Conrad notified news media of the governor's hospitalization immediately.

Wednesday morning reporters were given the following communique from the Governor's Office:

"Governor Ralph G. Brooks is resting comfortably at Lincoln General Hospital following his admission there last evening at 10:05 p.m.

"The Governor's physician advises that Governor Brooks has been suffering from a virus infection and as a result his heart is affected."

Burney Notified

Conrad notified Lt. Gov. Dwight Burney of the governor's illness Wednesday.

This marks the 4th time Gov. Brooks has been hospitalized in the 19 months since he took office.

He was hospitalized for 15 days in April of 1959 following a "mild stroke."

The governor was hospitalized again for a short period during 1959 when he had several teeth extracted.

In March of this year the governor entered the hospital for prostate gland surgery.

He returned to the office in April and had been steadily increasing his activities, reaching a full and driving schedule in recent months.

The governor won the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate seat in the May primary.

Sheep, swine and dairy cattle occupied Lancaster county 4-H clubbers Wednesday in a full day of activity that concluded judging of these events.

Waverly Winner

The Grand Champion market hog was shown by Marilyn Munn of Waverly, as she paraded her Hampshire barrow to top honors in the swine show.

There were 164 entries in one of the largest dairy shows to be held at the Lancaster county fair.

Judge Earl Phillips of Beaver Crossing, nationally-known Holstein breeder, termed the show a "good one."

Giving purple ribbons very sparingly, Judge Phillips termed his top placings animals that could show in any competition.

Calves

A class of Holstein senior heifer calves and a class of Jersey senior calves led the purple ribbon awards with 3 names to the top honors out of each class.

Thursday 144 Baby Beefs will parade before the judge as a fair feature while the 4-H girls in dress-making will hold their Advanced Dress Review from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Purple ribbons in many of the events will be named at the 4-H Purple Ribbon Show held in the 4-H Coliseum Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

Storm Damage Varied

. . . HEAVY RAINS DUE THURSDAY

Severe thunderstorms across the state, accompanied by lightning and heavy rains have caused considerable damage in some areas.

Fire started by a bolt of lightning destroyed the Mrs. Albert Schwartz 4½ miles northwest of Ashland.

Heavy rains in the Wahoo area have caused light flooding of Sand and Wahoo Creeks. The weather observer there reported 3.03 inches of rain fell and both creeks are out of their banks as a result.

6 Inches

An unofficial 6 inches of rain fell in the Mead area in about 2 hours, flooding drainage ditches and basements. However, no crop damage was reported there.

Lincoln received 1.79 inches of rain in the storm, but only .10 inches in Wednesday afternoon's showers.

Lincoln has received 25.38 inches of precipitation since the first of the year, and 5.02 inches during August.

The showers and thunderstorms are predicted to continue in some areas Thursday.

More Than Inch

Heavy thunderstorms with locally heavy rains well in excess of one inch are expected for the eastern portions of the state Thursday, with cool weather extending into the east and central portions by Thursday evening.

The high Thursday should reach the 80's.

Partly cloudy skies through Thursday night are predicted for the Panhandle area, with thunder showers Thursday aftnoon and evening. The high Thursday there should reach 75 or 80.

Lincoln had a high of 86 Wednesday, only one degree below the state high of 87 reported at Chardon. The state low of 44 was recorded Wednesday at Scottsbluff and Chadron.

Congo Flies Troops To Kasai Province

Leopoldville, The Congo (AP) — Steel-helmeted Congolese soldiers streamed by airlift Wednesday into Kasai Province, where bloody tribal fighting parallels the growth of a secessionist movement.

Six hundred or more soldiers were reported sent in.

Premier Patrice Lumumba has vowed to keep the Congo intact and there was speculation that the operation in Kasai, east of Leopoldville Province, may presage an invasion of rebellious Katanga Province, farther east.

Katanga itself was more immediately concerned with pro-Lumumba demonstrations at Albertville, on the western shore of Lake Tanganyika.

Calming Reported

Mali U.N. troops, Belgian parachute troopers and Katanga provincial soldiers were reported to have calmed that town after disturbances in which 4 Congolese were killed and 3 Belgian soldiers wounded.

Lumumba called for Irish U.N. troops to get out of Kivu Province, north of Katanga, and make way of Congolese "who alone can guarantee the evacuation of Belgian soldiers in this region."

A communique issued by the premier's office charged that Belgian troops based in Belgium's neighboring Ruanda-Urundi trust territory threaten the Congo's eastern border. It said there was a complaint from Kivu that the Irish fraternized with the Belgians.

Rounding out the day's chaotic picture was a declaration by officials of Leopoldville Province that Belgian soldiers have entrenched themselves in the lower Congo area near the frontier of Portuguese Angola. They appealed for U.N. soldiers to oust them.

Equipment Dropped

Without confirmation elsewhere, these officials declared "many Belgian planes" dropped the men and equipment Monday night. To some sources, their story sounded like an extension of the spy charges Lumumba whipped up against the Belgians last week in an effort to rally public sentiment behind himself.

U.N. Tunisian forces are nominally in charge of restoring order in Kasai province. The U.N. announced two weeks ago that the Tunisians had suffered a half dozen casualties—two dead and 4 wounded—under attack by tribesmen.

The warfare is between the traditionally hostile Lulua and Baluba tribes. It flared with new intensity a few days after Belgium freed the Congo June 30. The warriors fight with spears, poisoned arrows and torches. Many settlements have been burned.

Herter Lashes Out At Cuba

By Jack Rutledge

San Jose, Costa Rica (AP) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter charged Wednesday that Cuba is Communism's beachhead in the Americas. And the goal, he said, is to overthrow every Government in the hemisphere by force.

Herter urged the Organization of American States (OAS) to take immediate steps against Communist intervention and denounce Cuba's "tolerance and encouragement of such intervention."

Herter, in his blistering 35-minute speech to the OAS foreign ministers conference, declared:

Resistance Urged

"We should call for effective resistance to these efforts of the Chinese-Soviet bloc and restate the validity of our regional association and its principles as guide and instrument for our continual co-operation." Herter did not detail what action should be taken.

Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa shifted frequently in his seat while Herter opened the second day of conference debate on the Cuban issue. Cuba's was the only delegation that did not applaud when Herter finished.

Roa told newsmen when asked to comment on Herter's remarks:

"Listen tomorrow, listen tomorrow."

Makes 3 Points

Herter made these points in recounting the history of the Castro revolution in Cuba:

1. The Communist Party, under another name, (Popular Socialist Party), is the only one recognized in Cuba.

2. Cuban soil is being used to export Communism into other American republics.

3. Cuba has violated every one of the 7 points in the Santiago pact, designed to protect democracy and sovereignty in Latin America. These include the rights of a free press, free elections and protected human rights.

Herter cited Castro's speech of last March 28, in which the bearded prime minister said Cuba is not obligated to observe the Rio pact—considered the major defense document of the American continents — because his regime had not signed it.

Defiant Castro Says Russia, China 'Friends'

Havana (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro shouted defiance of the American foreign ministers conference Wednesday, declaring, "We will be friends of the Soviet Union and the People's Republic of (Red) China."

The foreign ministers are meeting in San Jose, Costa Rica, to discuss communist infiltration in the Caribbean and what to do about it. Some Latin American foreign ministers in speeches urged Cuba to rejoin the ranks of inter-American unity.

Castro answered a few hours later in a TV speech before a cheering throng of Cuban women's organization's.

Parking Garage Outside Ramp OK'd

Planning Commission Recommends Approval

By Bill Anderson

The City-County Planning Commission Wednesday approved the Peterson Bldg. Corp.'s request to build an outside ramp around its proposed parking garage at 12th and P.

However, the commission voted to ask the City Council to amend its recent ordinance regulating use of space over public sidewalks, to stipulate:

—that construction of such ramps be limited to parking garages in areas zoned for "J" business.

—that such garages must be wtihin the lot lines of not more nor less than ¼ sq. block.

Prevent Abuse

Board members indicated they felt the amendment would prevent indiscriminate erection of such facilities over public streets, walks and alleys.

The city ordinance passed two weeks ago outlaws use of space above streets, walks or alleys unless a special permit is obtained from the council.

Atty. Hymen Rosenberg, representing State Securities Co., appeared in protest to the proposal.

"Everyone should be treated alike," Rosenberg said, pointing out that State Securities had asked a 12-inch overhang when they built a parking garage at 14th and N several years ago, and the request was denied. He called for consistency in policy.

Bartunek Opposes

Atty. Leo Bartunek appeared to charge that the ramp would destroy the "aesthetic quality" of the downtown area.

Board member Charles Simon, favoring the proposal, said the parking garage is "a step forward and the citizens of Lincoln want it."

City Atty. Ralph Nelson said the ramp involves no legal violations. It is a "privilege granted by the city," he said.

The exit ramp would be 16 feet wide, wrapping around the north and west sides of the building at a height ranging from 25 to 60 feet above the sidewalk.

Planning Director Douglas Brogden had one objection:

"If this policy is adopted, it is presumed that in the future other developers will ask and receive this privilege. It is our opinion that indiscriminate scattering of ramps and other projections would adversely affect the excellent aesthetic qualities that the downtown area now enjoys."

Largely Met

Brogden's objection would be largely met by the restrictions proposed under the suggested amendment.

The board felt that the city should receive rental for public space used for private purposes, under a lease arrangement.

Harland Bartholomew & Associates presented a study on what is being done in other cities comparable to Lincoln. The study showed:

—use of street space for private purposes is not unusual and has been done for years as far as basements are concerned. There is ample precedent.

—there are many situations in which air space above streets has been used for bridges and many private utilities use street space.

Restrictions

The firm suggested that use of public street space be permitted when it will not impair car or pedestrian traffic; stop light or air to adjacent structures; and is not offensive from the standpoint of appearance.

The firm also suggested that the city be paid compensation, not under a permanent easement, but rather under a long-term lease renegotiated at 5 or 10-year intervals.

At an earlier meeting, the board had recommended that the couuncil authorize the study and also asked the corporation to re-study its proposed design to determine if the ramp could be put inside the building.

The corporation informed the commission that locating the ramp inside would mean 90 less parking spaces. Architect's plans call for 390.

Was Referred

The council had referred the matter back to the commission for a recommendation.

In other action, the commission:

—approved a change of zone from commercial to light industrial at 2nd and F for H. J. Amen.

—approved a change of zone from restricted commercial to commercial at 16th and L for Metro Investment Co.

—denied a change of zone from single-family to local business at Orchard and Cotner Blvd.

—approved final plat for Wedgewood Manor, a replat located in the vicinity of 70th and O.

—approved final plat for Hanson Plaza First Addition, a replat at 55th and Orchard.

—approved final plat for H & L Subdivision, a replat at 61st and South.

—postponed final action on Brandt's replat in the vicinity of 56th and R.

—postponed action on application of the SOS Corporation's request for a waiver of lot area and side requirements to build a 12-story apartment building at 13th and J.

The commission also heard a report from Eldridge Lovelace of Harland Bartholomew and associates on the Comprehensive Plan.

Board members present were Faulkner, Selleck, Simon, Miller, Warner, Dobbs and Ginsburg. Absent: Green and Woods.

BUT JUDGE, CLEANLINESS IS NEXT TO . . .

Elko, Nev. (AP)—Robert J. Mott was jailed for washing his clothes—every stitch—in a self-service laundry.

Police said Mott was nude and quietly waiting for the machine to finish when arrested.

Officers took out the clothing wet, dressed him, and took him to court. He was sentenced to 25 days for "offensive and tumultous conduct."

6,000 Fight Forest Fires

Truckee, Calif. (UPI) —Air and ground crews totaling almost 6,000 men raced the threat of rising winds in a fight to control forest fires that in 4 days cut ugly, smoking scars on some 75,000 acres across the heart of the High Sierra timberland.

Fighters held precarious 85 per cent control of the 39,000-acre Donner Ridge fire just north of Lake Tahoe and Squaw Valley. At Foresthill 65 miles to the southwest they held 70 per cent control of a 30,000-acre blaze. The 6,000-acre North San Juan blaze was under control.

It was estimated the fires destroyed timber worth $5,000,000.

The Donner Ridge fire burned within two and one-half miles of Truckee, a railroad and resort town of 2,000 persons, before it was halted by 3,600 men using shovels, bulldozers and tank trucks.

The blaze was still open on 5 miles of its 75-mile perimeter. Airplanes from Carson City, Nev., dumped tons of borate on the open strip in Dog Valley and atop Verdi Ridge near the Nevada line. Rising winds and heavy smoke forced a halt to air operations after 13 trips.

Forestry officials said fickle mountain winds were the key to future course of the blazes. Tahoe National Forest dispatchers said that if winds do not increase both blazes should be contained by Thursday.

6-Day-Old Baby Is Recovering After Heart Surgery

Buffalo, N.Y. (UPI) — Six-day-old Rhonda Lunt, believed to be the youngest human being to survive special heart surgery, appeared headed for a normal life today due to the skill of two surgeons.

The heart surgery team, who preferred to remain anonymous, performed the history-making operation just 48 hours after Rhonda was born. Disclosure was upheld until the infant showed definite signs of complete recovery.

As soon as Rhonda was born in Deaconess Hospital, a pediatrician recognized the tiny girl was not normal. The peculiar bluish tinge of her body, instead of a healthy pink, indicated a heart defect. She was rushed to Children's Hospital where a special heart-surgery team was summoned.

An examination indicated Rhonda's pulmonary artery leading from the heart to the lungs was blocked by a membrane. This condition occurs only once in 70,000 births, doctors said.

In effect, Rhonda's blood could not reach her lungs to absorb the oxygen needed to nourish other body tissue.

OK Given Final Wedgewood Plat

The City-County Planning Commission Wednesday approved the final plat for Wedgewood Manor, a proposed new subdivision to be located near the Veterans Hospital.

The 277-lot, 115-acre subdivision will be developed by the Park Manor Development Co.

Shaped in a horseshoe area, it will have its own 20-acre lake for use of future home owners. Homes will be in the $19,000-and-up class.

Man Admits 100 Rape Tries

Philadelphia (AP) — More than 100 rapes or attempted rapes during the last 5 years were admitted by a 27-year-old father of 3, police said.

Thirty-nine women, ranging in ages from 19 to 60, identified Donald Barry Stewart as their attacker, said Detective Lt. William Lovejoy. Stewart never had a criminal record until last week when he was picked up on charges of attempting to break into a policeman's home.

Lovejoy said Stewart often had trailed women after they left buses or trolleys late at night, then attacked them in the street. He said Stewart also often would park his car in a residential area early in the day, wait until he saw the man of the house leave and then enter the house, either forceably or through a ruse.

Lovejoy said Stewart couldn't remember the exact number of assaults.

Patrolman Charles Godin, leaving for work one morning last week, had noticed Stewart in a parked car and, on a hunch, jotted down the license number. As he reached work, Godin's wife telephoned to say someone was trying to break into the house. The license was traced to Stewart.

Stewart, a well-muscled 5-foot-10, is a service station attendant. He was charged with rape, assault and attempted assault.

Pope Greets Nearly 4,000 Top Athletes

Rome (AP)—Nearly 4,000 of the world's best athletes—atheist and Christian, Moslem and Jew—thronged St. Peter's Square Wednesday night for an outdoor audience before Pope John XXIII.

Wearing their Olympic uniforms, the men and women of 70 nations cheered the pontiff on the eve of the quadrennial Olympic Games.

"We cannot wish victory to every team or to each individual athlete; 'may the best man win'." The Pope said. "But that is no obstacle to our expressing the very strong desire that the contests of these days will benefit you all, and that from them, all without exception will be able to gain some advantage . . .

"You will be modest in victory, unruffled in defeat, resolute in difficult situations, and will show yourselves true athletes, giving to the great crowds of spectators further proof of the old saying: A healthy body possesses a healthy mind."

With the athletes hushed before him, the Pope walked out of the great Basilica to a temporary canopied throne.

It was the first time a Pope had received Olympic athletes in this manner, and also the first great outdoor audience Pope John has given in St. Peter's Square.

The pontiff spoke in Latin. Summary translations were given in 14 languages—English, Russian, Italian, French, Spanish, Portuguese, German, Dutch, Polish, Hungarian, Romanian, Chinese, Japanese, Arabic.

AIR SERVICE CUT MUST GO TO RAIL BODY

The State Railway Commission has adopted a rule which says that any airline operating on regular routes within Nebraska shall not drop any portion of its service without making application to the commission and receiving its approval.

Commission Chairman Joseph J. Brown said the rule, which takes effect immediately, merely implements commission authority already set out in the constitution.

No public hearing was held on the rule. Gov. Ralph Brooks, who has authority to do so, approved the waiver of the public hearing.

The rule presumably would affect Frontier Airlines which has announced plans to discontinue service on its northern Nebraska route at the close of business Sept. 15.

This was announced by the airline following a Civil Aeronautics Board order authorizing the temporary suspension of the route pending a decision on the possible permanent suspension of the route.

—VFW NATIONAL CONVENTION—

Firmness Must Rule Foreign Policy--Nixon

. . . Kennedy Will Address Veterans Friday

Detroit (AP) — A foreign policy of firmness without belligerence was enunciated Wednesday by Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The Republican presidential nominee spoke before the same forum his Democratic rival, Sen. John F. Kennedy, will address Friday (9 a.m. EST) — The national convention of Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Kennedy's speech was scheduled after he previously had been unable to appear earlier in the week because of a Senate vote on the medical care bill. VFW officials rejected a proposal that Kennedy address the convention by telephone.

The VFW estimated Nixon's audience in Detroit's big new Cobo Hall at 11,500, including 2,500 who stood and listened in a room adjoining the main convention hall.

Cheering crowds greeted the vice president as his motorcade wound through the downtown district and showers of confetti rained down from office buildings and the VFW convention hotel headquarters.

Nixon, a VFW member, remarked that he had attended its last 7 national conventions.

In his foreign policy remarks, Nixon declared that the United States "must always be firm without being belligerent."

And, he added, such was the policy followed by President Eisenhower when Russian Premier Khrushchev torpedoed the recently-cancelled Paris Summit Conference.

Khrushchev never intended the summit conference to succeed, Nixon said. But he declared at one point in his speech:

"We must be ready to negotiate outstanding differences with representatives of the Communist world anywhere, anytime there is a reasonable chance of reaching agreement."

To administration critics who have held that President Eisenhower should have expressed regret for the U-2 spy plane incident or should have answered Khrushchev's intemperate attack in kind, Nixon said:

"The President must not and should not apologize or express regret for protecting this country from surprise attack."

Kennedy said he would have expressed regret if that would have saved the conference.

Nixon declared the United States stands first militarily, economically, scientifically and educationally in the world and that "we have the will and determination to maintain that position."

Commenting on the Cuban government, the vice president said that the United States has the power to unseat Castro, "but getting rid of him is not enough."

"We must show them (the Cuban people) a way to a better life without Castro's dictatorship," he continued. "This is what we have to prove . . ."

LODGE IS PRAISED BY U.N. MEMBERS

United Nations, N.Y. (AP)—Members of the Security Council—including the Soviet Union—paid tribute Wednesday to U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge. He is leaving the U.N. next week to devote full time to his campaign as Republican candidate for the vice presidency.

In a round of brief speeches, the diplomats praised Lodge's work as head of the U.S. delegation during the past 7½ years.

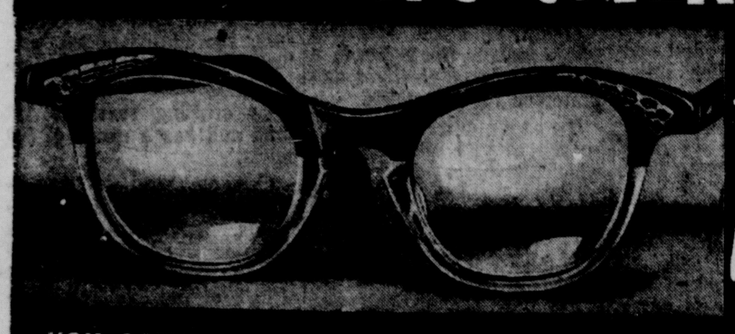

The Soviet Union's new deputy representative, P. D. Morozov, said he wished to join his colleagues in their expressions of regret at Lodge's departure. He noted there were differences between the Soviet Union and the United States, but he said he would prefer on this occasion to think of the things that unite them.

Lodge's resignation takes effect Sept. 3.

Guardsmen Move Out As Flames Halt

Near 10,000 Acres Damaged In Pine Ridge Scenic Area

. . . Wildlife Believed To Have Escaped Blaze

Lincoln Star Special

Crawford—Nebraska National Guardsmen moved out of the fire-ravaged northwest part of Nebraska late Wednesday afternoon, as the blaze which completely destroyed between 9,000 and 10,000 acres of grassland and timber in the Pine Ridge Country appeared under control.

According to John Kurtz, superintendent of Ft. Robinson, the danger of the fire spreading further was over shortly after daylight Wednesday.

Col. Don Penterman, assistant adjutant general of Nebraska, having observed the area from a helicopter, said Wednesday that it looked like just a matter of small burning out in stumps.

He said that although it was felt earlier Wednesday that it would take about a week for National Guardsmen with hand pumps to go through the burned out area and extinguish the small fires still remaining, it appeared that ranchers would be able to handle the burning-out process themselves.

The weather remained cool and the wind was low which aided in the last hours of fighting the blaze. However, no rain was reported.

Col. Penterman said it was believed that most wildlife had fled before the fire enveloped the area.

Praises Volunteers

He praised the volunteers, U.S. forest rangers and the Nebraska Game Commission for their aid in the long battle with the raging fire.

The fire which started Sunday afternoon about 16 miles west and 5 miles north of Crawford near U.S. 20, hopped from canyon to canyon and licked out on ridgepoints and into lead-off canyons in its 4-day foray, reaching almost to Harrison.

Lincoln Men Suffer Fewer Heart Attacks

. . . Than Omahans

Omaha (AP)—A government health service report says Lincoln men in the age bracket of 45 to 64 in the 3-year period of 1949-51 had far less chance of suffering a heart attack than Omaha men or those in 161 other metropolitan areas studied.

The report said Lincoln had 299 cases of heart attacks per 1,000 population whereas Omaha had 566.7 per 1,000 population.

The report, heard at the conference on the aging in Omaha, brought these comments:

Dr. E. A. Rogers, state health director: "On the face of it, it would seem Lincoln is the healthiest place to live. But careful thought would lead to some skepticism."

Dr. G. R. Underwood, Lincoln-Lancaster County Health Department director: "Our population has been increasing at the infant level. And babies don't die of heart attacks." He said Lincoln over-25 population has dropped in the last decade.

Mayor John Rosenblatt, Omaha: "Maybe our people work much harder."

Scottsbluff Area Receives First Good Rain

Scottsbluff (AP) — The first good rain of the summer was falling in the North Platte Valley area Wednesday night.

It began late in the afternoon.

Along with the rain, greatly welcomed because of the beneficial effect on beets and potatoes, came hail and severe lightning.

The hail was hardest in the area between Mitchell and Scottsbluff and heavy damage to the bean fields was indicated. Lighter hail fell in the Harrisburg area in Banner County.

Lightning set at least one rural building on fire.

15 Nebraskans To Homemakers National Meet

A Cherry County homemaker will head a group of 15 Nebraska women attending the National Home Demonstration Council meeting in Madison, Wis., Aug. 28-31.

Mrs. Keith Lessert of Merriman, State Home Extension Council president, is Nebraska's official delegate to the meeting. Alternate is Mrs. Bernard Ritcher, Kearney, State Council vice president.

Mrs. Svend Overgaard of Millard, is national treasurer.

The conclave is expected to draw 3,000 delegates from the 50 states and Puerto Rico.

Ag Employment Light For Week

Farm employment was light for the past week and will probably stay that way until harvest starts later in the fall, according to the Nebraska Division of Employment Security.

The division said there were 542 placements made during the last week.

Largest demand for qualified permanent farm hands continued at Kearney with calls also for temporary day workers.

A large number of corn sorters is expected to be employed about Sept. 10 at Fremont.

Elsewhere in the state there was little activity.

Omaha Firm Bids Low

Omaha (AP)—The Sides Construction Co., Omaha, with a bid of $94,900, was apparent low bidder for construction of an addition to the liquid oxygen facility at Offuttt Air Force Base, the Omaha district Army Engineer said Wednesday. The government estimate for the project was $92,500.

Town Spring Just Keeps On Flowing

By Dean Terrill
Southeast Nebraska Bureau

Steele City—Progress—a whole world full of it—hasn't stopped the steady trickle of a town spring here which has been running longer than anyone remembers.

And like their parents and grandparents before them, many residents of the little Jefferson County community still catch the sparkling clear stream in their water pails. Piped to the main street tank from a hillside over a block away, the water is used by at least one-third of the townsfolk.

"Floods from the Little Blue River have ruined all but a few wells in the bottom part of town, so about 15 families of us still carry our water from the old spring," explained Acting Postmaster Joe Payne. "Some people use their wells for wash water, but depend on the spring for drinking."

Flowing into an oldtime horse tank when there isn't a bucket catching it, the water for decades has made a summer recreation site for young Steele Citians. Its swimming use has been limited this summer, however, because of moss, dirt and broken glass which have collected on the bottom.

Seemingly nobody knows when the spring was first piped to its downtown location, including 88-year-old Mrs. Jennie Willey and Charlie Silkett, 89.

"It was there when I was a school kid, I can remember," said Silkett. "As far as I know, it's never quit running, either in the coldest winters or in summer drouths."

Another similar spout pours into a smaller tank nearby, coming from a different spring. Because of its more obscure location, however, it gets less traffic from either local users or curious visitors.

A touch of modernism caught up with the spring once, although nobody seems to recall exactly when. The wooden horse trough gave way to a more permanent concrete tank—but then that's progress, for you.

Beatrice OKs Power Pact, Ends Battle

Beatrice — After some 3 years of haggling, climaxed by a stormy midnight session, the city council accepted a wholesale power contract with Consumers Public Power District.

The action came after the Board of Public Works had spent over 3 hours discussing the 5-year agremeent, scheduled to become effective Sept. 10. This group then sent its 4-0 recommendation to the council.

Although the agreement is not expected to interfere with litigation underway the past several months, it will end the long-disputed contract under which Norris Public Power District has served the city.

Several previous attempts to gain approval of other contracts had failed, most of them on 4-4 votes.

The vote early Thursday morning was 8-0.

Bullet From Boys Fatal To Bypasser

Pittsburgh (AP)—Police said a young man was killed by a shot fired from a group of teen-age boys standing on a railroad bridge. Four youths were picked up for questioning after an intensive search by police.

Police said the boys, 4 or 5 in number and wearing T-shirts and blue jeans, apparently were shooting at pigeons with .22 caliber rifles from the bridge.

One of the slugs, police explained, struck Robert B. Ewan Jr., 21, of nearby Ross Twp., in the back of the head while he was walking with a friend along Baltimore & Ohio railroad tracks that run under the bridge. Ewan was dead on arrival at St. Francis General Hospital.

Police sent about 75 patrolmen into the area in a search for the youths.

3 Lebanese Seamen Missing After Sinking

Gibralter (UPI) — A Lebanese steamer sank in the Mediterranean sea after colliding with a Panamanian oil tanker in dense fog. Three Lebanese seamen were missing.

The 23,363-ton tanker, Esso Switzerland, rescued 26 of the 29 crewmen aboard the 1,948-ton steamer, the Halcyon. The survivors were transferred to the Leroy Eltinge, an American military transport ship which answered an SOS from the tanker, for transport to Gibraltar.

Retail Sales Rise 9.4% From '54-'58

Nebraska retail sales were hiked 9.4% from 1954 to 1958, according to the University of Nebraska Department of Business Research.

Total retail sales in 1954 were $1,570,769,000 compared with $1,717,967,000 in 1958 as reported in the department's monthly publication "Business in Nebraska."

Type of business showing biggest increases were groceries, 19.5%; farm equipment, 28.1%; service stations, 16.3%, and liquor stores, 22.7%.

Only Hardware Down

Hardware showed the only decrease with 4.6% reduction.

Among the 22 cities included in the report, retail sales dropped in only 3 communities — Beatrice, York and Fairbury.

Beatrice sales dropped 2.3%; York, 3.2% and Fairbury, .2%.

Percentage gains reported in other towns included: Omaha 12.8%; Lincoln 20.1%; Grand Island 5%; Hastings 4.1%; Scottsbluff 1.9%; Fremont 5.9%; North Platte 7.3%; Norfolk .5%; Kearney 11.6%; Columbus 6.9%; McCook 4.1%; Sidney 2%; Alliance 6.8%; Nebraska City 8.1%; Holdrege 7.7%; Falls City 5.9%; Broken Bow 11.2%; Chadron 10.6% and Bellevue 11.1%.

Bellevue's increase was attributed to the town's rapidly expanding population.

Fire Demonstration Planned At Duncan

Duncan — A fire demonstration will be staged here Sunday afternoon, featuring the Columbus and Duncan fire departments. Events will include a guiding stream contest between the two departments.

Solutions, Not Blame, Needed, Declares Whelan

North Platte (AP) — Democratic congressional candidate Gerald Whelan of Hastings said Wednesday the farm problem needs "solutions-seeking rather than blame-placing."

In remarks before a young Democrat meeting honoring former agriculture Secretary Charles Brannan, Whelan said his Republican opponent, Rep. Phil Weaver, "has recently criticized the Democrats in the Senate for failing to provide leadershp in farm legislation."

"Weaver neglected to say," Whelan added, "that he has voted with the Democrats 6 out of 7 of the last crucial votes. Weaver seems to agree with the Democratic solutions but enjoys attacking them in the public press."

Whelan said both parties "have tinkered with the farm program :and too little attention has been placed at getting at the roots of the problem, which is fundamentally having production out of balance with consumption."

Medical Care Sop

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Senate action on proposed federal medical care to the aged has been reported as a defeat for or a rejection of Sen. John F. Kennedy, Democratic candidate for president. The only trouble with this is that the question of medical care for the aged is not such a highly personalized one. Sen. Kennedy has not lost a thing.

When Sen. Kennedy becomes old, he will not be needing federal help with his medical bills. Nor probably, will any of his colleagues. Even if they lack the personal wealth of Sen. Kennedy, they have provided themselves with pensions which will amply meet their demands—at the expense of taxpayers, of course. Nebraska's Sen. Carl T. Curtis is one of those who has earned his pension eligibility but has not seen fit to consider the old age problem of others. He is recorded as voting against every measure of medical aid to the elderly except the watered-down farce the Senate finally passed.

Curtis Against Aid Bills

With this measure, the losers are the old people who will go on without adequate care, not any of the senators. Sen. Kennedy did not lose in a personal sense, either, because he still stands squarely behind a medical aid plan with teeth in it—one that would provide benefits without pauper's oaths. As he said, he will carry his fight for a better program to the people in the fall elections.

If the public doesn't want the kind of program for which Kennedy stands, all it has to do is vote for Vice President Richard N. Nixon and senators such as Curtis, Republican Barry Goldwater of Arizona and Democrat Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma. The bill passed by the Senate gives increased medical aid funds for those on public assistance rolls.

To get this aid, then, what must one do? The application for aid includes a form which reads as follows: "In order to cooperate in the investigation of my need for aid, I am willing that the persons or organizations listed below give information they may have about my financial circumstances to a representative of the . . . County Division of Public Welfare, not only at the time of the original investigation, but also during the time I receive assistance.

"The following may be consulted: legally responsible relatives, employers; Allowance and Allotment Branch of the War Department; benevolent or fraternal organizations; insurance companies; banks; trust companies; savings and loan associations; loan companies; firms renting safe deposit boxes; postmasters; the Veterans Administration; federal agencies administering agricultural credits, railroad retirement benefits, old age and survivors insurance benefits, and unemployment compensation; and any other individuals, corporations, or agencies having confidential information in regard to my financial situation and need for assistance.

"Physicians, hospitals, and other vendors of medical services are hereby authorized to give information as to my health and need for medical services."

Aid is denied an applicant with direct family relations capable of supplying the need, whether such capability is carried out or not. Social Security or any other form of income is deducted from the total amount of assistance deemed necessary. All property of an old age recipient is held under a lien by the county and this lien, or mortgage, is foreclosed at death and the income applied toward past welfare payments.

Now, there are a great many reasons for all of these requirements and considerably good logic to many of them. They are not a mark of inhumanity on the part of local welfare workers. They are primarily federal and state regulations governing the administration of the welfare program. Just the same, they destroy the privacy and dignity of those unfortunate enough to have to become a part of the program.

Obviously, a person would go to almost any extremes to stay off the welfare rolls if he had any pride left in him. There are many people not on any form of welfare program but who still are or will be in need of assistance for medical care. By tying the medical care into the welfare program, we have forced the old people either to ignore it or give up entirely the independence they have managed, so far, to maintain for themselves. This will save a lot of money, all right, but the money will have quite a stigma attached to it.

Stripped Of All Pride

The real questons involved here are twofold — what is the public's responsibility in the area of the aged and how shall that responsibility be carried out? Is the society we have built for ourselves so hard as to dictate no responsibility? If not, does it go only so far as to stipulate that we must demand our pound of flesh? The people will provide the answers in November.

". . . Mr. Presidents . . . !!"

Music Will Linger On

Probably not a person has lived during the time of Oscar Hammerstein II who failed to appreciate and understand the gentle words he put to music. For 40 years now people have been humming and singing the lyrics of Hammerstein with the music of just about every composer of his day. The famed combination of Rodgers and Hammerstein produced songs that will be played for many, many generations.

Actually, there would have to be a complete change in mankind's way of life and thinking before the works of this great Broadway lyricist would be put to rest. The songs he produced always touched on the simple way of life and the kind of human emotions that every person experiences from time to time. He did not try to create something false or to make life appear to be something it was not. Nor did he see the sordid side of things, disappointment and disillusionment.

He dwelt among thoughts that were common to every man and spoke in words and terms that always touched a familiar experience. In essence, he wrote of life itself and had the knack of bringing beauty to the English language. Oscar Hammerstein is now dead but he has given the world a storehouse of beauty and an inspiration that will always be remembered. He has contributed the lyrics to more than a thousand songs and there would be few of them all of us would not recognize.

In addition to this, he has shown that there is a magnificence to life if only we have the intelligence to appreciate it. An understanding of human nature and a patience with human frailties were trademarks of his work. And he had the courage of his convictions. He wrote as he saw life and as he felt it, not as he believed it might be seen by others. It is a sad thing that he is now gone but it is a finer thing that he lived to give the world the richness of his sensitive spirit.

County Board Disgusting

The actions of the Lancaster County Board in its budget deliberations this year have the distinction of being about the worst in memory. Any part of the public which has confidence in what the board has done simply has its eyes closed and has no regard for good government. Every single meeting to discuss salaries was held behind closed doors as were a vast majority of the meetings on other budget items.

This is in marked contrast to every other single subdivision of government in this area and even in contrast to past practices of the board. The City Council did not hold one single meeting on its new budget behind closed door. Its budget meetings were even held in the Council chambers and attended by at least one citizen in addition to the members of the press.

Ralph Harlan, the only Democrat on the County Board, has made a change, all right, in the long GOP hold on the county. The trouble is, the change has been for the worse as Harlan has been one of the worst offenders of the open government policy. Rollin Bailey, chairman of the board, has been at least indifferent to his responsiblity to uphold the people's right to know what the county government is doing.

What is it that the board is so afraid of that they can't shed the light of day on it? Is it lack of ability which has them so shy of the spotlight? Probably so. Bailey will be going off the board in January, a break for freedom of information, but Harlan will carry on for another two years. It is hoped that Bailey's replacement has a keener sense of the public trust placed in him by victory at the polls.

For all the public knows about it, the 1960-61 county budget could be a hodgepodge of the greatest order. Completely unknown are the reasons and logic of the board in arriving at the budget total as it now stands. Completely unknown are the explanations of department heads of their needs and expectations. A full understanding of the county's finances and its financial position is impossible under such circumstances. The board is to be condemned for its secrecy and its disservice to the public on the budget.

Don't Be Too Sure

Eastern Nebraska, blessed with abundant rainfall, except at times, lags central and western Nebraska and the Western Great Plains states generally in the field of flood control, water conservation and water utilization.

It is the matter of waste water that needs some thought. It is habitual in the landowner's way of thinking that Providence presents him with water and gives him exclusive title to it, to use or to throw away. That may be true when water is in surplus and there are no rival claimants to it.

In line with this, it is interesting to note that competent spokesmen recently at Laramie, Wyoming, for a general meeting of Great Plains interests had this to say about water in general and eastern Nebraska in particular. While there is currently a superabundance of water in this region, demand for it will be at a saturation point by 1980. That is just 20 years hence. The significance of this is that if there is going to be appropriation and use by present interests, there isn't a great deal of time left to get our water under conservation and control.

On studies of water use in the Rio Grande Valley, it has been established that an acre foot of conserved water will produce a crop value of $50 an acre. But if the water is reserved for fishing and recreation, the same acre foot will return between $200 and $300. And if the water is reserved for industrial use, the acre foot will produce between $3,000 and $4,000. Just where is $50 agriculture going to come out against $200 recreation and $4,000 industry when the supply gets short?

Letters Evidence Of Reds' Brain-Rinsing

(Editor's Note — While Drew Pearson is out of Washington briefly, his column is being written by his associate, Jack Anderson.)

WASHINGTON — Like U-2 Pilot Francis Powers, a crewman of the downed RB-47 reconnaissance plane, Lt. John McKone, has written to his wife that he is happy and healthy in his Soviet prison. No word has been heard yet from the other surviving crewman, Lt. Freeman Olmstead.

McKone's letter is almost identical in language to those Powers wrote to his wife from his prison cell. Air Force officers have concluded from the letter that McKone, while not brainwashed, has been at least brain-rinsed.

If the two lieutenants should be tried for espionage as the Soviets have threatened, the Air Force expects them to testify pretty much as Powers did. Unlike the U-2, however, the RB-47 was shot down over international waters.

An analysis of Powers' performance as the reluctant star of Russia's recent espionage extravaganza has convinced Air Force experts that he was subtly coerced into following the Soviet propaganda line.

They consider it significant that he was permitted no visitors before the trial who might have disrupted the mental pressure he was under and started him thinking along new lines.

Except for enough independence to be convincing, he testified at his trial as the Kremlin must have wished. He echoed the propaganda line that he was the unwitting, unwilling tool of the Pentagon. He also claimed he was hit at 68,000 feet, thus confirming the Kremlin story.

☆ ☆ ☆

This is completely contrary, however, to the evidence our tracking stations picked up. Powers' voice was heard over the emergency "G" channel tersely repeating the word, "Flameout!" He shouted nothing about being hit.

He was tracked making a controlled descent in a spiral from 70,000 feet to 37,000 feet. The voices of the Soviet defenders were also heard crackling over their transmitters. One shouted, "He's turning left!" another, "He's coming lower!" But there were no triumphant shouts about scoring a hit.

Photographs of the U-2 wreckage, displayed in Moscow's Gorki Park, confirm the "Flameout" report. The blades of the jet engine were bent, indicating the engine had indeed stopped. If the engine had been running, the blades would have been sheared off.

NOTE 1—Both Mrs. McKone and Mrs. Olmstead have sent appeals for clemency to Soviet Premier Khrushchev. After two weeks, they still haven't received a reply.

NOTE 2—Intelligence officers are mystified over the "secret" reports White House Press Secretary Jim Hagerty claimed President Eisenhower received during the Powers trial. Everyone else in Washington, including top intelligence people, saw only the daily press reports.

Congressmen Seem Untouched By Noise

WASHINGTON—Hold on, the man said. In a second, the engines of the Atlas Missile would ignite. And there the Congressmen sat, rigidly, staring tensely ahead, waiting for the boom.

Would they pass the noise test? Suddenly, the room shuddered. Those of us in the rear winced and cowered. The din was incredible. But up front, the congressmen just sat. No physical reaction.

We were, for audio purposes, in a Mercury capsule set to be propelled into space. The noise came from an actual recording of an Atlas rocket. This was the sound the future astronaut would hear through his padded helmet.

Two huge speakers, set in the front corners of the hearing room, zeroed in on the lawmakers. It was through these speakers that the record of the racket of the rocket roared at us.

Front and center—wearing no cotton or other protective devices—was Rep. Overton Brooks (D-La), chairman of the Space Committee.

Staging the test was the National Space Agency's official noise man, Dr. Ira H. Abbott.

"We will hit 115 decibels," said Dr. Abbott. This was frightening in view of what he said earlier.

He said 70 decibels of noise is so loud it would disturb normal conversation. And 90 decibels dulls your hearing. Above 130 decibels, you could become permanently deaf. The noise of 140 decibels is enough to break up an airplane.

Now, the roar of the rocket engine crescendoes toward full thrust, the actual takeoff . . . 90, 100, 105 . . .

But there the congressmen sat, showing no discomfort.

After two full minutes, the roar finally fell away as the rocket theoretically swept into the higher atmosphere. An assistant turned off the recorder.

"Marvelous!" said a fellow at my side. He was admiring the inhuman aplomb of the lawmakers through it all.

That got me to thinking that maybe the space people training the astronauts are sending up the wrong men . . .

Dr. Abbott, who put on the show to demonstrate the importance of our noise problems, said our government is spending perhaps more than a million dollars a year in this jet age to find ways to cut down aircraft racket.

Obviously, said Rep. James Fulton (R-Pa) the noise experts aren't having much success. Dryly, he told the racket researcher:

"We have an airport next to Pittsburgh where the noise is beyond the tolerance of the people there. The people are now willing to give it away."

The din specialist gave the congressman a long, understanding look. And so it appears that noise, in increasing decibels, is here to stay.

Perhaps some day nature, which in the past has given both man and beast natural tools of defense, will endow us all with padded heads.

JOSEPH G. MOLNER

To Your Good Health

"Dear Dr. Molner: Is there such a thing as suffering from a broken heart? Can you describe the symptoms?

"My sister-in-law seems to be in that condition because of disappointment in her oldest boy of whom she had been very proud.

"Now she has lost interest in life, cries most of the time, is very upset and nervous, can't sleep, skips meals, has lost 10 pounds and has aged about 10 years in the last few months. I hope you can help us and tell us where she will end up if her son doesn't come to his senses.—A.V."

No, I don't really think there's any such thing as a "broken heart." There's such a thing as grieving, of course. There's such a thing as despair. There's such a thing as utter disappointment—loneliness, unhappiness, broken dreams, betrayed faith.

But let's not attempt to say that any one of these, or any combination of these or other matters of the mind or spirit constitute a "broken heart."

It is natural to be upset when a son does not develop as you wish or expect him to. It is not natural to go completely to pieces because of it. Life is such that all of us must contend with disappointments, and most of us are fated to meet with major ones. But life goes on. It is up to us to make the best with what we have instead of mourning over what we do not have, or have lost.

From what you write about this unhappy woman, I can't help wondering whether, technically, her real trouble may not be what is known as "depression"— not just the sort of temporary feeling of being depressed that most of us have at times, but an emotional disturbance.

I'm not offering this as a diagnosis, of course. I don't know enough about the patient. But I do suggest that she see a psychiatrist. There have been very good results in the last year or so with some new drugs known as "psychic energizers," which are being used in such cases.

Depression is an extremely common form of emotional trouble. If the new drugs prove as successful in the future as they appear to have been thus far, it will be an immense blessing.

The woman's trouble may not be depression, of course. It may be something else. In any event, the best way to help her (and conceivably the only way) is to determine whether she has some deep-rooted emotional illness.

"Dear Dr. Molner: Is there any danger in using margarine in cooking or as a spread? I was told that it could cause hardening of the arteries. Does it affect a person who has ulcers?—Mrs. H.G."

This matter of hardening of the arteries and what causes it is by no means settled. Margarine has the same food value as butter, and both contain saturated fats. These fats are now being studied carefully.

If you are concerned to any great degree, there's a specially processed margarine which contains more of the unsaturated fats instead. It also costs more. Margarine can be safely used by ulcer patients.

☆ ☆ ☆

"Dear Dr. Molner: My husband is 20 pounds underweight and his stomach bothers him. The doctors have found nothing organically wrong. Is it possible that tobacco chewing might bother him?—C.F."

Yes. Whether you smoke it or chew it, the nicotine still enters the system.

☆ ☆ ☆

"Dear Dr. Molner: I have heard more than one person state that milk can be harmful if drunk in quantity by an adult, and that it is merely a baby food. I know this is incorrect, but I'd like something from you about it.—T.N."

I've heard it, too.

True, it is possible for some people to be hypersensitive, or allergic to cow's milk (or almost anything else) but this isn't the rule. It is the exception.

Milk, for one thing, is an excellent source of calcium, and it is amazing how many older people complain of bruising easily, of having muscular cramps, and such troubles which very often can be traced to lack of calcium. No, milk isn't "merely a baby food." It's good for adults as well as for children.

Note to M. E. M.: I know of no reason why nibbling hard boiled eggs should harm the kidneys. For the sake of your reducing diet, however, why not substitute celery, raw cabbage, carrots or other raw vegetables at least half the time when you have the urge to nibble? This will cut the calories!

Lords And Commons

Lincoln, Neb.

Probably the British House of Lords is the most august legislative body in the world. It is made up of peers who are appointed by a king or queen and who hold office for life. The roster shows the names of great men of a past period and those with inherited titles. Naturally they are the oldsters of the realm, some senile and many having geriatric tendencies. Purse-proud or honor-vain, they are strong individualists and seldom two can agree on any subject.

The House of Lords is theoretically in constant session but factually the body gets together only on rare occasions to pass on pressing problems. Such an occasion lately invoked a quorum. Lord So-and-So had been disturbed in his slumbers by boys ringing bells as they pushed their carts up and down the streets of London selling ice-cream cones and other toothsome viands.

The veteran statesman proposed a resolution to abate the nuisance. After three or four days of heated discussion on the resolution and its numerous amendments, a majority came to a reluctant resolution that prohibited the tintinnabulation of the bells from eleven a.m. to seven p.m. The queen was bound to accede and the peers returned to their morning beauty sleep.

The House of Commons, the working parliment folks, did not care much. All they had to do was confirm a reshuffled cabinet, consider the simple matter of installing bombsites, quell some African disturbances and levy new taxes for a swollen budget.

Prejudice Aside

Lincoln, Neb.

With the sound and fury of the two national conventions now a thing of the past, the voters can evaluate the merits of the presidential candidates and pick their favorite. For president we have two vigorous and comparatively young men, both of whom are very able and experienced in affairs of government and in campaign strategy.

As this writer sees it, there is a wide difference between the two men in the matter of ideologies of government, as there is in their respective parties and in their platforms. One party is controlled by ultra-conservatives who are devotees of the status quo gospel, while the other one is dominated by liberals who believe in progressive measures. The lines here are sharply drawn and it should not be too difficult for the average citizen to determine from past history where his interest lies, and vote accordingly.

One hopes that this campaign will be fought out on the merits of the issues, and that there will be a minimum of name-calling, smears, personalities and half-truths which have marked some past campaigns. I have reference to the smear tactics which helped defeat California's Democratic Sen. Helen Gahagan Douglas and gave Dick Nixon his seat in the U.S. Senate. Also the trick photograph episode which defeated Maryland's Democratic Sen. Tydings a number of years ago. These grossly unfair tactics should be condemned by the voters in no uncertain way.

We have the best form of government on earth and it will be so only as long as the electorate inform themselves on the issues and ignore party prejudice.

Cuban Situation

Beatrice, Neb.

How silly and blundering it is to refuse some the privilege of buying Cuban sugar with American dollars. Had they helped instead of backing the exploiters and gamblers, Cuba wouldn't have turned to the ones who are out to ruin our world and who have the brains, materials and backing to succeed.

It is time for this administration of straw bosses to quit their holier-than-thou attitude.

Our present governor is one of the best this state has ever had. He has eliminated foot-dragging and gotten things going for the benefit of the entire state instead of a privileged few.

Deadwood, S.D.

Poor Jimmie Hoffa! Nobody wants his kisses, not even Gov. Brooks. The governor fears that a kiss from Hoffa could mean political death.

The rejected suitor in these days of political wooing is shunned like a plague by Sen. Carl Curtis and others in public life who deserve to be opposed by Hoffa and his gang.

Friends of Sen. Curtis rejoice that he has been spared the Hoffa stigma.

Senate OK's Almost All Aid Money Asked By Ike

WINDUP OF CONGRESS MOVES A STEP NEARER

Washington (AP) — The Senate moved a step nearer adjournment Wednesday by passing a $3,989,054,000 foreign aid bill that would give President Eisenhower almost all the money he has been insisting on to help friendly nations.

By its 67-26 vote on passage, the Democratic-controlled Senate went along with its appropriations committee in restoring every cut made by the House except 200 million dollars for military aid.

The Senate also added an extra 100 million dollars Eisenhower asked for the presidential contingency fund to deal with unforseeable crises of the Congo type.

In the House, the Rules Committee put off a decision on another stumbling block to adjournment. It agreed to vote Thursday on whether to let sharply differing Senate and House minimum wage bills go to conference.

Could Mean New Setback

If the Democatic-controlled committee decides to keep the wage bills bottled up it would mean another setback in Congress for Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic candidate for President.

He pushed to Senate passage last week a bill to increase the minimum wage from $1 to $1.25 an hour. A bill previously passed in the House would boost the rate only to $1.15 and extend coverage of the wage-hour law to far fewer workers than the Senate bill.

Rules Chairman Howard W. Smith (D-Va) told reporters after the closed meeting "I rather think" the bill will be cleared Thursday after some questions are clarified.

Other committee members said Smith's position was that there would be no clearance of any other major issues, and that the wage bill would be bottled up if backers of school-aid measures seek to pry their bills loose.

The Rules Committee holds a key to when Congress will adjourn. There has been talk in the Senate of quitting by the end of this week but House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) said Wednesday he doesn't see how Congress could possibly get through by then.

Kennedy himself apparently is not anticipating any quick adjournment.

Goes To Conference

The $3,989,054 foreign aid bill, which now goes to a Senate-House conference, compares to the $4,175,000,000 Eisenhower asked originally. But Congress, in separate legislation authorizing the program limited spending for the next year to $4,086,300,000. Last year's appropriation was $3,600,000,000.

Before final passage, the Senate adopted 3 amendments by voice vote:

1. By Sen. Styles H. Bridges (R-NH) to shut off foreign aid funds to any country which provides either arms or economic help to the Fidel Castro regime in Cuba.
2. By Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) to deny aid to any country which supplies arms to any Latin American country "being subjected to economic or diplomatic sanctions by the Organization of American States. The target of the amendment was the Dominican Republic.
3. By Sen. Francis Case (R-SD) to limit U.S. aid to no more than 90% of the total cost of the entire program in any Country.

Nebraska Vote

Nebraska's Republican senators voted with the losing side as the senate passed a $3,989,054,000 foreign aid money bill. Sens. Roman Hruska and Carl Curtis voted against the measure.

Early Farewell Honors Ike

Washington (AP)—President and Mrs. Eisenhower were given a farewell reception Wednesday night—5 months before they are scheduled to leave the White House.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Senate Republican leader, invited GOP senators, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, cabinet members—plus the wives of all—to a combination reception and buffet.

Why the rush to bid farewell?

Well, Congress is scheduled to knock off work soon, and Dirksen figured everybody would be too busy in January, when Congress returns, to have the reception then.

Mrs. Smith To Speak

Mrs. Peggy Walton, Nebraska Wheat Commission's home economist, will help organize an educational campaign to promote the popularity of wheat foods in South America. She will leave Lincoln Sept. 11.

The Nebraska Wheat Commission has granted her a leave of absence so she can accept the 3-month assignment for Great Plains Wheat, Inc., a market development group supported by wheat commissions and grower associations in Nebraska, Kansas, North Dakota and Colorado.

Mrs. Walton will be assigned to the association's Lima, Peru, office. She will help in drafting plans for nutrition education programs in Colombia, Ecuador, Peru and Brazil.

Nuclear Sub Travels New Arctic Route

Washington (AP) — The most direct route yet traveled of the arctic's northwest passage has been accomplished by the nuclear-powered U.S. submarine Seadragon.

The Navy said the vessel has pioneered "a possible military and commercial route through the Parry Channel." It was the latest in a series of arctic exploits by the new U.S. nuclear subs.

The voyage, partly on the surface and partly beyond a 300-foot depth, also helped develop techniques and test equipment for submarine underice operations.

The Seadragon navigated the most direct route from the Atlantic to the Arctic Ocean, trail-blazing a short sea route from the eastern United States to Alaska.

Rites Thursday For S. E. Ewing

Madison — Funeral services for Samuel E. Ewing, 81, prominent Madison druggist for many years, will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Presbyterian Church here.

From 1907 to 1918 he was owner and manager of a drug store at Creston. Later he was cashier of the Creston Farmers State Bank. Cashier of the State Bank of Madison for a year, he was a special agent for the Nebraska State Banking Department from 1930 to 1934.

He started in the drug store business in 1935 in Madison, retiring a few years ago.

Surviving are his wife; son, Dr. Eugene Ewing of Madison; daughters, Mrs. R. M. Kiesselbach of San Carlos, Calif., and Mrs. Margaret Hansen of Eureka, Calif.; and 11 grandchildren.

Test Plots On Warrior Yield Up To 55 Bus.

Western Nebraska seed growers who produced foundation seed of the new Warrior wheat for the University of Nebraska Foundation Seed Division in 1960 report yields of up to 55 bushels per acre.

This yield was obtained on a 25 acre field grown by Theron Yardley near Hemingford in Box Butte County. Charles and Darrell Bancroft of Gurley and John H. Watson of Alliance reported yields of 40 bushels per acre.

Several other growers of Warrior foundation seed reported yields ranging from 25 to 35 bushels per acre. The average obtained by the University of Nebraska in 3 western Nebraska test plots was 51 bushels per acre. The test plots were grown in Dawes, Cheyenne and Deuel Counties.

Valuable Antique Guns Are Missing

Royal (AP) — A large number of antique guns have been stolen from the private collection of Antelope County Commissioner Ernest Johnson.

Johnson said he went to his country home at the former Dikeman Park — which is unoccupied— Wednesday and discovered that a large part of the collection he has amassed over a 50-year period had disappeared. About 40 of the guns were considered valuable collectors' items. He said he believed the theft occurred Saturday or Sunday.

Johnson has not yet placed a dollar value on the loss.

CAB Orders Frontier To Provide On-Time Data For Northern Route

... During Pre-Hearing Conference On Nebraska Service

Washington (AP)— Frontier Air Lines Wednesday was ordered to provide data showing its on-time performance of flights over a northern Nebraska route.

Walter W. Bryan, Civil Aeronautics Board examiner, upheld the request by Nebraska during a two hour prehearing conference on the possible deletion of this route from the airline's schedule.

The CAB earlier this month granted Frontier authority to temporarily suspend service on the route and called for the hearing under the board's use-it-or-lose-it policy. The hearing also will include the possible addition of Columbus to the airline's central Nebraska route should the CAB authorize elimination of the northern segment.

Raymond J. Rasenberger, Frontier attorney, said the northern route service will be suspended on Sept. 15.

Robert Beckman, attorney representing Nebraska, asked that Frontier supply actual arrival and departure times for the northern route. He said the data is needed because there has been "chronic lateness and missed connections" there.

Rasenberger objected to the request but Bryan granted it. He said the cities involved "have a right to bring forth in the record what the service has been."

"They couldn't live up to the board's policy if there hasn't been adequate service," he added.

Bryan also set out a timetable for further action in the case, calling for exhibits by the parties to be submitted by Oct 24 and rebuttal exhibits on Dec. 12.

"I imagine the hearing will have to go over until after the first of the year," he noted.

Beckman asked that the hearing be held in Nebraska but Bryan said it would be conducted here.

The examiner also denied a motion by Frontier to include in the hearing the alternative possibility of adding Columbus to a North Central Airline route in Nebraska.

Rassenberger told the examiner the issues should be confined to whether a city has or has not generated sufficient traffic on the route "and not speculation about the future."

Must Stand On Record

"The cities have to stand on the record they have made," Bryan observed. "The board warned these cities it is a marginal proposition — if they don't use it the service will be taken away."

Bryan said the cities will be entitled to explain their position.

Rush Clarke, a special assistant to the attorney general of Nebraska, added at this point:

"I think we can show that a terrific amount of this service has been driven away by Frontier."

Check Forger With 14 Names Said Operating

Plattsmouth (AP) — Sheriff Tom Solomon says a check forger using at least 14 names is operating in eastern Nebraska.

Solomon said that in the past week the forger has passed 4 checks in Plattsmouth and several others in Cass County, all for $63.29 each.

He said the checks passed in Cass County were on a bogus Lincoln firm (the Lewis Floor Sanding and Tiling Co.) and were countersigned with the name J. T. Lewis and issued to a Phillip M. Baker.

Solomon said the forger is believed to be a man who opened an account in a Lincoln bank with two bogus checks drawn on a Kansas bank.

'Bicycle Built For Two' Big Fun For Three Resourceful Young Lincolnites

In an age of multi-geared machines and air brakes, 3 Lincoln youngsters have discovered that the out-moded "bicycle built for two" provides more fun and excitement than sleek, newer models.

A neighborhood novelty, the bicycle is a cooperative project put together by Gary and Ronald Detweiler, and Henry Adams, who pooled their resources, talents—and their bikes—to come up with the fascinating machine.

The boys can assemble or dis-assemble the tandem in 5 minutes. Henry, age 12, puts his together to carry his Lincoln Star route each morning. Ten-year-old Gary has another bike and doesn't reassemble the front half, which is his interest in the project.

Ron, 13, reports that the first try at a "double bike" just didn't make it. In a second attempt, the boys discovered they needed to loosen the rear handle bars so the rear rider, who supplies all the motive power, wouldn't pull the machine off balance.

The front rider is pilot of the craft and directs the bike along its trial runs around the neighborhood.

"We'd like to take longer rides, but all our trips have to be where there are no hills coming or going," explains Ron.

Limited Trips

This limits the boys' excursions, especially around their hilly neighborhood near 47th and Van Dorn.

"We get going pretty well on a level or a slightly downhill street, but it's sure hard on the guy in back when we try to get up a hill," he continued.

The boys would like to expand to a bicycle for 3, but older brother, Ron, foresees that it "just won't work."

Gary and Ronald live at 3033 So. 47th, and Henry's family lives at 2941 So. 47th.

TAKING TURNS

Col. Gould Named

Omaha (AP)—Col. Gordon T. Gould Jr. has been named to succeed Brig. Gen. John A. McDavid as chief of the Strategic Air Command's communications - electronics division, SAC announced. Gen. McDavid has been assigned to Air Force headquarters as deputy electronics-communications director for the joint chiefs of staff.

Judge Says He'll 'Pray For' Man Who Kicked Him

Fort Worth, Tex. (UPI) — Probate Judge A. L. Crouch, nursing a sore backside, said he will "pray for the Lord to forgive" a 72-year-old bank appraiser who kicked him in the seat of the pants.

Crouch said the bank appraiser, Ollie Stanley, attacked him in the basement of the Tarrant County Courthouse, slapped his face and "kicked me in the rear."

"But I don't think anything was dislocated," the judge added.

Stanley, a former deputy sheriff who has served on 9 grand juries, said he kicked Crouch because "he was popping off about my integrity."

'Save 60' Goal Possible Says Gov. Brooks

Governor Ralph G. Brooks stated Wednesday that unless the slaughter on our highways reaches record proportions this week, the goal of "Save 60 Lives in '60 can be reached.

The governor's statement was released by his office.

This can be accomplished, he said, by the continued cooperation of every driver and pedestrian in the state demonstrating courteous, vigilant driving and walking, in addition to complying with all traffic and safety rules and regulations.

From information received from the office of Thomas P. Ryan, supervisor of the State Accident Records Bureau, the following comparison summary shows August 26 as a possible date of attaining the goal of saving 60 lives in '60.

| | 1959 | 1960 | Lives saved |
|---|---|---|---|
| August 23 | 214 | 159 | 55 |
| August 24 | 217 | ... | 58 |
| August 26 | 221 | ... | 62 |

Armed Robber Sought By Police

Police Wednesday were still searching for the bandit who held up the Murphy Finance Co. at 2021 Q Tuesday evening and escaped with the largest cash haul taken in a Lincoln robbery in recent years.

The lone gunman escaped with $1,642 and police were unable to recall a robbery in recent years in which the loss was so high.

A 29-year-old ex-convict was held overnight for questioning about the crime but police released him after questioning. He reportedly was not in town at the time of the crime.

Artist Sought

Police Chief Joe Carroll said he was searching for an artist who could make up a composite drawing of the robbery suspect from the description of Elizabeth Meyer of 4503 Cleveland and William Sullivan of Omaha, the two employes who were in the finance office when the crime occurred.

Miss Meyer and Sullivan viewed a number of "mug" shots of known criminals but failed to find one which resembled the man who robbed them and then tied them with wire before fleeing.

They described the man as about 35, 5-11, 160 pounds, dark complexioned and tanned, "nice looking," with a scar on the side of his nose. He was wearing a dark suit.

The holdup man had come in Tuesday morning, said he was a "Mr. Wilcox," and asked about getting a $300 loan. After finding out the interest rate on the loan he said he would return later in the day with his wife.

He returned alone about 6:30 p.m. and pulled a gun on Sullivan as Sullivan was discussing the loan with him. The robber fled after clearing out the cash drawer and tying up Sullivan and Miss Meyer.

10 Nebraska Schools Get Roosevelt Speeches

Ten eastern Nebraska colleges and universities have received a record album of the authorized edition of speeches of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, 1933 to 1945, as a gift from Local 7470, Communications Workers of America (CWA).

President Vance D. Rogers of Nebraska Wesleyan University accepted the albums on behalf of the various colleges from CWA President Ronald H. Smith of Lincoln.

Smith said the albums were presented to colleges located in the geographical area where the membership of the local resides.

He said the albums were presented to further CWA's program "for the erection of a memorial in honor of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt."

Smith pointed out that the 1953 convention of the CWA "effectively voiced the desires of the American public by unanimously adopting a resolution calling for the erection of a memorial in honor of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt," thus becoming the first organization to propose a permanent and fitting shrine "to one of our greatest American leaders."

Congress adopted the joint House resolution setting aside the site for this memorial and authorizing $150,000 to carry on competition for a theme and the actual design on Sept. 1, 1959.

"In this album is the voice that raised our spirits and inspired our hopes in times of trial and in times of triumph," Smith said. "Here are the great words that are printed indelibly on the pages of history . . . We of CWA recognize the urgency of getting these living words of this great American leader to the ears of today's youth."

Schools sharing in the gift, in addition to Nebraska Wesleyan, are The University of Nebraska, Union College, Junior College, Concordia College, Doane College, Luther Junior College, York Junior College and Peru State Teachers College.

MORRISON CAMPAIGN AIRBORNE

Frank Morrison, Democratic gubernatorial candidate, took to the air Wednesday as he pressed his campaign into the northwest and northeast sections of the state.

Morrison attended the "Diamond Jubilee" celebration in Rushville at noon and a meeting in South Sioux City Wednesday night.

Morrison said that he would travel in excess of 1,200 miles by plane Wednesday alone. He said "This was the longest day yet" based on territory covered.

Morrison said he was "very encouraged" by the crowds and receptions he has received so far in his campaign.

"The people of our state of both parrties are aware of the problems we face," he said, "and people will make their independent selection of their governor in November on the basis of qualifications as opposed to partisan politics and propaganda."

Godwin Gets Inspector Job

Roy Godwin, 41, has been appointed Lincoln's new plumbing inspector, Public Works Director D. L. Erickson announced Wednesday.

Godwin, who resides at 3615 So. 15th, replaces Frank Staats, who retired this month from the post he had held since 1942.

Godwin was elevated from the rank of assistant plumbing inspector. He'll have a starting salary of $420 per month.

Godwin has lived in Lincoln 11 years, has two years of service with the city and 5 years experience with Lincoln firms. Prior to that he was at Hastings.

Kennedy Must Blame Demos For Woes In Congress - - Ike

By Arthur Edson

Washington (AP) — President Esenhower said Wednesday Sen. John F. Kennedy has only the Democrats to blame for failure to get through Congress the medical program for the aged that Kennedy wanted.

At his news conference Eisenhower was told Kennedy had said the threat of an Eisenhower veto, plus Republican objections, had killed the proposal.

The president noted the Democrats have a 2-1 edge in Congress.

"So I don't know why the complaints," Eisenhower said. "They have got the majority—such great majorities. They can do anything they want to, if they get together."

Nineteen Southern Democrats joined with the Republicans Tuesday night in defeating 51-44 an amendment backed by Kennedy, the Democratic presidential candidate, and his vice presidential running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas. They sought to finance the medical aid through Social Security taxes.

While he was at it, Eisenhower seemed also to knock out, or at least jar, a Republican contention that only Vice President Nixon, with his role in the administration, has had the executive experience needed by anyone applying for the White House job.

For, when he was asked about some of the big decisions Nixon has participated in, Eisenhower said:

"I don't see why people can't understand this. No one can make a decision except me—if it is in the national executive area. I have all sorts of advisers, and one of the principal ones is Mr. Nixon."

Here's the way Eisenhower views the political scene:

Issues—Domestically, Eisenhower said, the issues will be the farm program and sound money, "preventing the debasement of our currency." But he said foreign affairs will be discussed, too, and he's sorry about that.

Praise For Benson

Benson—Eisenhower was told that a claim has been made that the administration, including Nixon and Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, has brought disaster to the farmers. Would he like to comment?

"To my mind," Eisenhower said, this is "a distortion that is used for political purposes, and nothing else."

And as for Benson, "I have never known a man who was more honest, more dedicated, and more informed in his particular work . . . I think he has done a wonderful service."

Religion — Told that evangelist Billy Graham, "a man whom you have publicly esteemed," has said religion will be a legitimate issue, Eisenhower said:

"It should not be an issue. But, I, on the other hand, I am not so naive that I think that in some areas it will not be. It is just almost certain, because as long as you have got strong emotional convictions and reactions in these areas, there is going to be some of it—you can't help it.

"But I certainly never encouraged it."

Dr. Hall New Educational Chief At Pen

Dr. Richard E. Hall, 36, has been appointed new educational director at the State Penitentiary.

He will assume his post September 1, according to Warden Maurice H. Sigler.

Dr. Hall

Hall, of 2545 No. 63rd, has served as director of education at the State Reformatory since 1956. He has also served 5 years in the Lincoln public school system, including 4 years at Whittier Junior High School.

A native of Ashland, he received his bachelor's degree from Wesleyan University in 1949, and his master's degree from the University of Nebraska in 1950.

Hall just completed work for his doctorate in education at the University this June.

He will succeed Harold R. Blount, whose resignation was accepted earlier this month, when he announced that he would take a post in the Lincoln public school system.

New Posts For Phone Officials

Omaha (AP)—James B. Moore Omaha, vice president of Northwestern Bell Telephone Co., has been promoted to the newly created position of vice president for marketing in the 5-state Northwestern Bell Telephone Co., A. F. Jacobson, president, said Wednesday.

Moore is vice president and general manager for Nebraska.

Jacobson said Thomas S. Nurnberger, presently vice president for personnel of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., Detroit, has been named to succeed Moore as general manager for the company in Nebraska.

Homemakers To Close With Election, Plans

Election of officers and outlining of plans for the coming year will highlight the closing day's sessions Thursday of the 3-day meeting of the 42nd Annual State Homemaking Education Conference.

Dr. Amy Jean Holmblade, associate professor of home economics education at the University of Minnesota, who is the conference leader, will discuss "New Directions: They Show In Our Purposes and Procedures," at the Thursday morning session.

Wednesday's sessions included reports on "Home Economics in the National Education Assn.," and on the American Home Economics Assn. convention.

Government Okays Sabin Oral Polio Vaccine

Washington (UPI)—The government Wednesday officially approved the Sabin oral live virus polio vaccine and looked forward to the day when it would help eliminate all polio outbreaks in this country.

U.S. Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney announced the government had found the vaccine, developed by Dr. Albert Sabin of the University of Cincinnati, safe and "suitable for use in the United States."

The Sabin vaccine, along with another live virus vaccine developed by Dr. Hilary Koprowski of Philadelphia's Wistar Institute, already has been administered to some 13 million people in other countries, notably Russia and other European nations.

3rd Vaccine Tested

A third live virus vaccine developed by Dr. Harold Cox of the Lederle Laboratories was tested on thousands of school children and adults in Dade County, Florida, early this year. Directors of the Forida test termed it successful.

Burney told a news conference the U.S. government moved "conservatively" in approving only the Sabin vaccine because it wanted to work out regulations for its safe use. He said approval of the Cox and Koprowski vaccines was being withheld at least temporarily because they were found to be virulent in some test monkeys.

Burney said the Public Health Service expected to license manufacture of the Sabin vaccine next spring. Quantities probably will not be available for the "polio season" next summer since mass productions is not anticipated before the fall of 1961.

Considered Superior

The live virus vaccine is considered superior to the killed-virus Salk vaccine in a number of ways. For one thing, it can be administered orally and removes the fear of needle injections held by some people. It also is cheaper.

Burney said he hoped use of the Sabin vaccine in conjunction with the Salk vaccine would eliminate polio epidemics in the United States.

He said he would consult with representatives of the medical profession, local and state health departments and others this autumn in an effort to develop "a unified national program to accomplish the total prevention of polio outbreaks."

While withholding immediate approval of the Cox and Koprowski vaccines, Burney said manuacturers were being encouraged to produce better strains if possible.

Liquid Or Tablet

He approved all 3 types of the Sabin vaccine. He said they could be taken in liquid or tablet form and that repeated doses, probably 3 or 4, were necessary to assure immunization.

The Public Health Service will send proposed regulations for the manufacture of the Sabin vaccine to pharmaceutical firms next week.

But Burney doubted that the companies would be able to submit data required for licensing before mid-spring of 1961 and build up large supplies before the fall of next year.

Strunk's Efforts Praised

Tribute Is Placed In Congressional Record

Washington (AP) — A tribute to the late Harry D. Strunk, for many years publisher of the McCook (Neb.) Gazette and a leader in development of flood control and reclamation projects, has been put into the Congressional Record by Rep. Phil Weaver (R-Neb).

"I have known Harry Strunk for many, many years," Weaver said.

"During all of this time he was an outstanding and vigorous fighter for the development of sound and practical reclamation projects and flood control in the Republican Valley. His efforts were ceaseless and his devotion to this cause complete.

Triggered By Flood

"I suppose it was the great Republican River flood of 1935 which claimed over 100 lives that caused Harry Strunk to strike out so vigorously and so unceasingly for better protection for his neighbors. That may have been the triggering reason; but he had always held a deep and abiding interest in flood control and in the development of sound, economic reclamation projects . . .

"Many of my colleagues who have sat on the public works and appropriations committees will remember him well. They will recall the long, lean and weathered figure which appeared before their committees year after year. They will remember the intense face, the vigorous and eloquent speech. Most of all, though, they will remember the fire which burned throughout his being and the force that drove him, which he could so easily communicate to others."

Weaver said Strunk "has created a living memorial to himself in the development of the Republican River Valley."

Strunk died early this month.

Opening lead — ten of hearts.

It is certainly not rare for declarer to find himself playing a contract which, on the surface, appears destined to go down. (This situation, strangely enough, arises more often with some players than others.) But the very imminence of defeat should spark declarer into making plans to overcome the probable result.

For example, take this hand where South is in four spades and gets a heart lead. He sees there are two hearts and a diamond to be lost, and one, possibly two, spade losers. Of course, he may lose no spade tricks, but this would require either defender to have been dealt the Q-J alone, hardly a likely event.

So declarer looks around for other possibilities, aside from this remote one, which will offer a legitimate chance to make the contract. And if he searches hard enough, he can come up with the right answer, though he doesn't learn his fate until ten tricks later.

Let's suppose East takes the A-K of hearts and shifts to a club. Declarer wins in dummy and leads two high spades, learning in the process that the adverse trumps are divided 3-2. He has no way of knowing which defender has the queen of spades, but he hopes that that defender was also dealt a doubleton diamond.

South next cashes the A-K of diamonds, everybody following suit. Then he leads a club to the ace and cashes the queen of hearts, discarding a diamond from dummy.

Everything is moving on schedule as the elimination of suits takes place, but South still does not know what the result of his efforts will be. Now South leads a club to the queen, and his preliminary work is done. He has cleared all the clubs and hearts from dummy's hand and his own.

He leads a spade and West must win it. But West, by this time, has only a heart and a club left. Whichever one is returned, South ruffs in dummy while he discards the diamond loser to make the contract.

DEAR ABBY

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My grandfather died at 96 and it was up to me to notify all the relatives so they could come to his funeral. I sent out 14 telegrams and made 5 long-distance calls. I couldn't contact a relative who lives in Omaha because he was up in Canada fishing, which was no fault of mine.

All this happened a year ago but I bring it up now because the will was read and this Omaha relative only got a dollar instead of $9500 because he wasn't at the funeral. Now he blames me. Was it my fault?

TRIED MY BEST

DEAR TRIED: If you tried your best and couldn't reach the fisherman, he shouldn't blame you. All he can do is write it off as a $9500 catch that got away.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: Please give your readers the low-down — are you "Miss" or "Mrs.?" Is that your picture and when was it taken? And while I'm getting personal, how old are you?

NOSY

DEAR NOSY: I am MRS. and have been for 21 years (same man; I take my own advice). That picture is recent and I was 42 on July 4th.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I got the shock of my life this morning when my ten-year-old daughter asked me a question about sex. I had no idea she knew as much as she did. I told her she was too young to know, which she certainly is.

I think this modern method of child-raising is all wrong. I mean telling children everything they want to know. I must be right because statistics show that every year more young girls are getting into trouble. I would like your opinion.

OLD-FASHIONED MOTHER

DEAR OLD-FASHIONED: Girls get into trouble because they know too little—not too much. You're lucky your daughter comes to you with her questions. Don't discourage her with that foolish dodge, "You're too young to know." If she's old enough to ask, she's old enough to know.

Afternoon Wedding

MRS. FLETCHER WEST MEANS, II

The altar of the Church of the Wayfarer at Carmel, Calif., was appointed with lighted candles and bouquets of white chrysanthemums on Saturday, Aug. 20, for the wedding of Miss Carol Nadine Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Anderson of Lincoln, and Fletcher West Means, II, of San Francisco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher W. Means of Portland, Me. In the presence of members of the family and a small group of friends, the 4 o'clock service was solemnized by the Rev. K. Fillmore Gray.

Mrs. Richard Howarth of San Jose, Calif., as the matron of honor, and the bridesmaid, Miss Marilyn Kirk of Carmel, wore bell-skirted frocks of rose taffeta and carried rounded bouquets of white and frock-toned carnations.

Serving Mr. Means as best man was Anthony Vigna of Gilroy, Calif., and seating the guests were Kenneth Anderson of Lincoln, and Keith Fenton, Ft. Ord, Calif.

White peau de soie fashioned the bride's period gown. Re-embroidered French lace edged the rounded decolletage of the long-sleeved bodice of silk, and the circular skirt was worn over hoops and draped at the back into a modified bustle trimmed with appliques of the lace. Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion was held to the head by a queen's crown of pearls, and she carried a crescent of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Upon their return from a Canadian wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Means will reside at San Mateo, Calif. A graduate of the University of Nebraska, the bride is a member of Towne Club, Mortar Board, Pi Lambda Theta and Alpha Lambda Delta honoraries. Mr. Means attended Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., where he is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity and served as president of the student council.

Autumn Bride-Elect Honored

Among the many prenuptial courtesies honoring a September bride-to-be, Miss Janet Webster, was the dessert supper Wednesday evening given by Miss Jerrie Bell at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Bell. During the informal evening hours, the soon-to-be bride was presented a miscellaneous shower by the guests, former high school classmates.

The wedding of Miss Webster and her fiance, Gene Samuelson, will take place on Thursday evening, Sept. 8, and the ceremony will be solemnized at Christ Methodist Church.

TALK

—The talk about town these late summer days is filled with news of homecomers, visitors and their courtesies, as well as parties for the ever-popular brides-elect.

* * *

—A pre-nuptial courtesy to be given this evening will honor Miss Ann Rogers and her fiance, Dr. Robert A. White, whose marriage will be an event of Friday, Sept. 9, at the First Presbyterian Church. Honoring the couple, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Howey will be host and hostess to members of the family at dinner at the University Club.

And on Saturday morning, Mrs. Willard M. Folsom and Mrs. Walter W. White will be hostesses at a coffee at the home of Mrs. Folsom. A hostess gift will be presented to Miss Rogers, and the guests will include members of her mother's card club.

Also entertaining for Miss Rogers this week were members of a bridge group of which Dr. White's mother, Mrs L. F. White, is a member. The hostesses, Mrs. Colton Smith, Mrs. C. F. Coy and Mrs. Tom Allen entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Smith.

* * *

—A courtesy on the calendar for today is the luncheon for which Mrs. A. M. Longman will be hostess at her home honoring Mrs. Harry Perkins of St. Paul, Minn. Mrs. Perkins, who is the houseguest of her sister, Mrs. Ernest Walt, came to Lincoln last week to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Linda Walt, and Charles Wilson on Sunday, Aug. 21, and will return to her home this week end.

Coming from out of town for the luncheon and a short visit in Lincoln will be Mrs. Florence George and Mrs. Irene Davies of Logan, Ia., and Mrs. Hugh Finnerty, Council Bluffs.

* * *

—Homecomers in the news include Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Faires who have returned from a seven-week tour of Europe. A highlight of their trip, which included the Isle of Capri as well as most countries on the continent, was the Passion Play at Oberammergau, Germany.

* * *

—Also vacationing in Europe are Mr.and Mrs. Harold Andersen of Omaha (she is the former Marian Battey of Lincoln) who are among those lucky, lucky people who will be in Rome for the Olympics.

* * *

Off for a late summer holiday are Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Rucklos and their daughter, Fredericka, who left on Tuesday morning for Pelican Lake, Minn., to spend a week or 10 days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Minier at their summer home.

We Hear That

Mr. and Mrs. James Wall have returned home from a ten-day trip to southern states including Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana and Arkansas during which Mr. Wall, who is executive secretary of the National Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association, served as guest speaker at agricultural conferences.

Preview Of September Opening

While school in Lincoln does not officially open until Monday, Sept. 12, and vacation still is in progress, not all youngsters have forgotten their school books and pencils.

Every afternoon for the past week the school bell has been ringing at 3735 Country Club Blvd. for the small fry of the neighborhood to attend a special, short session. Instructing these classes from 1 o'clock until 4 o'clock in the afternoon have been Miss Susan Lindburg, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lindburg, and Miss Kathy Adamson, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Adamson. The recreation room of the Lindburg home has been transformed into a modern classroom complete with improvised desks, and a blackboard.

As is a well known fact, the work load of a teacher is quite heavy, even overburdening, and these two "teachers" have an extra heavy load. In addition to their teaching chores, Cathy doubled as "school nurse" while Susan dealt with discipline problems as the "principal." Susan stated that the greatest problem she had to cope with was how to regain the attention of the class after they had been laughting at a student's joke.

The afternoon curriculum of the Adamson-Lindburg school included reading, spelling, arithmetic, art and music, with Miss Adamson at the piano — and of course, recess.

One afternoon, the teachers and their students, 12 in all, went to the library where they selected books. Then each afternoon a book was read to the class and afterwards a discussion period was held. Another feature of the school was a "talk it over period" which dealt with many subjects. It was during this period that the students expressed the wish for homework which Susan said the two "teachers" could not provide.

Attendants

A popular September bride-elect is Miss Mae Louise Lebo, whose marriage to William Whitmer will take place on Saturday, Sept. 24, at Bethany Christian Church.

For her honor attendant, Miss Lebo has chosen Mr. Whitmer's sister, Miss Annie Whitmer. The bridesmaids will be Miss Vicky Fulton, Miss Mary Ann Keane and Miss Linda Lloyd.

Lighting the candles will be Miss Diane Kahler and Miss Jane Lynnelle Whitmer, sister of the bridegroom-elect. Miss Amy Whitmer, also a sister of Mr. Whitmer, will be the flower girl and Miss Lebo's brother, Richard Lebo, will be the ringbearer.

Serving his brother as best man will be Dougal Alan Whitmer and the corps of ushers will include Ron Bayless, Edward Fricke, and Eldon Hatcliff.

Miss Lebo will be the guest of honor at a dessert supper on Saturday given by Miss Linda Lloyd at her home. During the evening hours, the guests will present the soon-to-be bride with a personal shower.

Parties and Newcomers in Suburbia

EASTBOROUGH

A swimming party, by invitation only, was held Friday afternoon from 3 o'clock until 5:30 o'clock, when the members' children of the Eastborough Swimming Pool Association entertained neighborhood friends. Making plans for the party were Mike Willey, Tommy Jergens, Terri Regler, Barbara Dewey, Susan Sears, and Patty McCorkle. To add to the occasion, of course, there was an adequate supply of refreshments, prizes, and games to occupy their guests for an afternoon of fun.

Then we heard that Mrs. Don Mitchell and her sons, Phillip and Neal, plan to return home Saturday. Their three-week vacation has included visits to El Paso, Tucson, Las Vegas, and Phoenix. Accompanying the Mitchells was Mrs. Mitchell's grandmother, Mrs. Burnes Wright, of Arkansas City, Kan.

Should also mention that Mr. Mitchell was spending his vacation with the Nebraska National Guard in Minnesota.

MEADOW LANE

The newest member of the talcum powder set in Meadow Lane is Susan Marie Byrom, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Robert M. Byrom. The young lady, who made her premier appearance at St. Elizabeth Hospital on Tuesday, Aug. 16, has an older sister, Laura, and two brothers, Bobby and Jimmy.

Mrs. Thomas Bunton of Pontiac, Mich., is the maternal grandmother and the paternal grandmother is Mrs. Helen T. Byrom of Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Byrom is the former Patricia Bunton. Incidentially Grandmother Byrom is now in the city getting acquainted with her newest granddaughter.

The welcome mat is out this morning for Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Donahue and their family. Formerly residing in Grand Forks, N.D., the Donahues moved into the home at 1320 W. Avon Lane the first part of the month.

However, one member of the family, Eddie, is not living in Lincoln as he is stationed with the Marine Corps at El Toro, Calif. The other members of the younger generation of the family include 15 year-old Anne, Rita who is 12 years old, nine year-old Paul, Wayne who is eight years old, and Linda who is 16 months old.

An item this morning to report from the birthday book. Saturday evening Mrs. Irv Hiney was the guest of honor when a group of friends entertained at a surprise birthday party at the Hiney home. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Roper, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Rosenstock, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. John McKnight.

Kennedy: Nixon Presided Over 'National Security Decline'

By Douglas B. Cornell

Alexandria, Va. (AP)—John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, Wednesday night accused his Republican rival, Richard M. Nison of presiding over "the decline of our national security."

The Massachusetts senator thus carried his campaign for the White House into the south for the first time.

He bore down on the way Republicans are trying to build Nixon up as a man of experience in government and the handling of foreign policy.

"Mr. Nixon is experienced—experienced in policies of defeat, retreat and weakness," Kennedy said of the vice president.

The Democratic candidate said he agrees with the GOP that experience in foreign policy is a major campaign issue, but it is not an issue merely of the experience of candidates.

"It is the experience," he said, "which the whole nation has gone through in the last 8 years—and what an experience it has been!"

'Critical Decline'

Kennedy repeated what he has said before, that America never has experienced such a critical decline in prestige, "driving our friends to neutralism, and neutrals to outright hostility."

Quoting Nixon to the effect that when the communists are running us down abroad, it's time to speak up for America, Kennedy said he would add to that it is also time to build America up.

"That," the senator said, "is the real issue in this campaign — not who can best talk back to the communists — not who can best swap threats and insults — not who can best stand up to Khrushchev. The real issue is who can stand up and summon all the resources of this land to the defense of freedom, to restore our nation's relative strength and leadership."

Across Potomac

Kennedy didn't head far south — just across the Potomac river from Washington. The setting for the address was a party rally in a high school football stadium —in a northern Virginia congressional district in which the Pentagon is located.

But it still was an important trip — to a Republican congressional district in a state that backed the Republican ticket in the last two presidential elections.

The Democrats concede they will have a tough problem again in Virginia. That is partly because of the party platform and a stiff civil rights plank, partly because Kennedy is Roman Catholic, and partly because Sen. Harry F. Byrd, the state's dominant Democratic figure, has maintained political silence.

Byrd declined to endorse Adlai E. Stevenson in 1952 or 1956.

Governor On Hand

But the state's governor, J. Lindsay Almond Jr., interrupted a vacation in order to be on hand. And Virginia's other senator, A. Willis Robertson, accepted a bid to be present.

Kennedy's vice presidential running mate Lyndon B. Johnson also was on the speakers' list.

This was a rally to promote both the national ticket and the cause of Ralph Kaul, who is trying to pry Republican Congressman Joel T. Broyhill out of his 10th District House seat.

Kennedy derided the fact that Nixon has presided over meetings of the National Security Council at times — when President Eisenhower has been ill or absent.

'Most Rapid Decline'

Challenging Nixon's experience in that field, the senator said:

"During the 8 years he has been presiding, our security has declined more rapidly than over any comparable period in our history — in terms of defensive strength and retaliatory power, in terms of our alliances, in terms of our scientific effort and reputation."

Kennedy also hit at Nixon's travels and hooted a bit at the vice president's kitchen in Moscow last year with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

So, Kennedy proposed talking about experience in the campaign, what he called the experience of the last 8 years and "the most expensive experience in the history of the nation."

Kennedy Will Whistle-Stop In California

Washington (UPI)—Democratic presidential nominee John F. Kennedy announced plans to make a whistle-stop campaign tour by train through California.

Kennedy's press aide Pierre Salinger, said the tour would be similiar to one made by former President Harry S. Truman in 1948.

The campaign train will leave Portland, Ore., the night of Sept. 7. The following day Kennedy will make rear platform speeches at Redding, Red Bluff, Chico, Marysville, Roseville, Sacramento, Martinez and Richmond, Calif.

Kennedy plans to sleep on the train the night of Sept. 8, Then make the following stops Sept. 9: Modesto, Turlock, Merced, Fresno, Tulare and Bakersfield, Calif.

The night of Sept. 9 Kennedy expects to fly to Los Angeles for a rally. Then he will take a two-day rest.

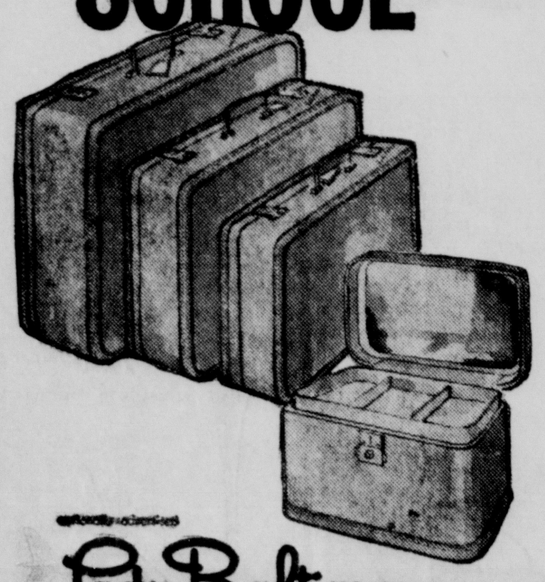

Salinger said he thought the whistle-stop technique might be used again during the campaign but that final schedules have not been worked out.

Saroyan In Russia

Moscow (UPI) — Author William Saroyan arrived here for a brief visit and said he is exploring the possibility of writing a novel or a play with a Russian setting. He said he plans to visit his family's homeland in Armenia which he last saw 25 years ago.

Polaris Missile Ignited Under Water 1st Time

Los Angeles (AP) — A Polaris missile was ignited under water for the first time Wednesday after being launched from a tube on the ocean floor.

The Navy said the test off San Clemente Island was "highly successful." It indicated the fiery ignition would not have damaged the mother ship had it been launched from a submarine.

A Polaris was launched from a submerged submarine for the first time last July 20. This missile ignited after it cleared the surface.

The air-powered underwater launching tube used Wednesday is identical to the 18 in the USS George Washington in recent 1,000-mile firings at Cape Canaveral, Fla. This tube has launched 3 Polaris test missiles, the first on April 14, for above-water firings.

The Polaris tested Wednesday carried only enough solid propellant for a 6-second flight after ignition.

Aerojet General Corp., builder of the Polaris' solid fuel rocket motors, said the first stage engine in Wednesday's test was the largest solid rocket ever ignited under water. The fleet ballistic missile is designed to become operational late this year.

The launch was conducted by technical crews from Lockheed missiles and space division and the Naval ordnance test station at nearby Pasadena.

HOUSE OKAYS GIFTS TO U.S.

Washington (AP)—If anybody wants to give the treasury a little something to reduce the national debt—money, real estate, automobile, anything at all—it's all right with the House.

The House passed, without even taking a record vote, a bill authorizing the government to accept gifts of any kind to be applied on the debt.

It was a happy day for Rep. Charles E. Bennett (D-Fla), author of the bill and of a variety of other plans to encourage people to whittle away at the debt. He started 3 years or so ago; this is the first of his measures to be approved in either house. But he was confident the Senate, sooner or later, will pass it.

Minuteman Test To Be Made Soon

Brigham City, Utah (UPI) —An Air Force spokesman disclosed Wednesday that the new Minuteman intercontinental ballistics missile system would have its first aerial test as a complete unit later this year at Cape Canaveral.

The solid fuel propelled Minuteman, the "compact car" of America's ICBM, is scheduled to become operational in 1962. It eventually will supplant the Atlas and Titan as long range nuclear weapon carrying missiles.

The disclosure by Col. Samuel C. Phillips, manager of the Minuteman program for the Air Force, that the weapon system would be ready for testing this year indicated that the program was at least on schedule and apparently even slightly ahead of original target date for tests.

Phillips told newsmen touring the Thiokol Chemical Corp. plant on the northwestern Utah desert where the Minuteman's first stage will be manufactured that a "bold approach" to development of the weapon is successful and "everything so far is falling right in place."

Phillips added that he had "high confidence" that the testing program would be successful and that the Minuteman, which he described as 6 to 10 tiimes less costly than the Atlas, Titan and Polaris missiles, would take a high place in America's arsenal.

Barber Files Suit Against Order To Hike His Prices

Scottsbluff (AP) — A Scottsbluff barber filed suit Wednesday to keep from having to raise his prices.

The suit, filed in Scotts Bluff County Court by Harry Kohtz, contests an Aug. 1 order by the Nebraska Board of Examiners which sets minimum fees at $1.50 a haircut for Banner, Cheyenne, Kimball, Morrill and Scotts Bluff Counties.

Kohtz, who said in the suit he had operated his Scottsbluff shop for more than 30 years, contends he would be driven out of business if forced to raise his fees. He said his customers could not afford the hike.

Miss Ball Hospitalized

New York (UPI) — Actress Lucille Ball was admitted to New York Polyclinic Hospital for minor surgery on her right leg. A spokesman said Miss Ball expected to be released from the hospital in a day or two.

Bow, Arrow Net 13-Inch Alligator

Topeka, Kan. (AP) — Murrell Horton, 17, went hunting in his basement with a bow and arrow after his mother complained something was hissing. He bagged a 13-inch alligator.

After newspapers published the story, the body was claimed by 15-year-old Mike Tharp who lives two blocks away. He said the pet had been missing about a month.

Smith Resigns As Head Of CWA Union Local 7470

Ronald H. Smith has resigned as president of Local 7470 Communications Workers of America, effective Saturday.

Smith will accept an assignment with the Communications Workers of America for graduate study at Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y.

Vice president Duane Grove will fill the unexpired term as president of the Local.

Sewer Retreat Fails Fugitives

Lowell, Mass. (AP) — Two men, who briefly eluded police by disappearing into an underground sewer, were taken into custody and charged with larceny.

Police and firemen pursued George Roeschlaub, 29, and Lucien Bilodeau, 23, both of Lowell, about 500 yards up an 8-foot sewer entrance.

Then the sewer branched out into many smaller tunnels and police abandoned the underground search.

But they staked out Roeschlaub's car, and took him into custody when he approached it some time later. Bilodeau was taken as he walked along a side street.

Street Repair Completion Is Eyed Sept. 3

The bigggest street repairing job in recent years in downtown Lincoln is well under way, and Police Lt. Melvin Dorn said it is hoped that nearly all of the work will be completed before State Fair opens Sept. 3.

Dorn said the asphalt paving projects are causing some difficulty in getting around and that "no left turn" restrictions at several intersections have been waived to help move traffic.

About 170 parking meters also are hooded to allow drivers to use the additional space.

Dorn gave the following list of paving projects involved:

—Now underway: N from 11th to 13th; P from 17th to 19th; 11th from O to P; 14th from O to M; and 13th from P to Q.

—Still to do: 19th from Q to P; 14th from L to M; and N from 18th east to the Rock Island tracks.

—Completed: Q from 13th to 15th; 11th from J to O; 16th from N to Q; and S from 14th to 15th.

'State Needs More Technical Grads'

. . . Dr. Decker Says Would Boost Industry

Nebraska needs more technical school graduates to support any program toward industrialization, Dr. Freeman Decker state commissioner of education, said Wednesday.

"Technical schools do more than about anything else" to boost industry, he said.

The comment came as Nebraskans prepare to vote on a constitutional amendment proposal voted in a special session of the Legislature, which its backers say would help increase industrial payrolls to balance the declining agricultural economy.

The Nebraska vocational-technical school at Milford now graduates about 200 students, an all-time high, and two private schools in Omaha graduate about 250 each, one in automotive and refrigeration fields and the other in the electronics field.

Offers Good

Job offerings for these students are so good at the present time that it is a problem to keep them from quitting before their courses are completed, Dr. Decker said. Most of the job offers are from Nebraska firms, but many excellent ones are from outside the state.

Nebraska has received some federal aid for the extension of technical training under the National Defense Education Act.

As for the high school level, many schools are taking "steps in the right direction," but it is difficult to say that high school graduates are well enough qualified to meet the demands of modern industry.

More schools are placing increased emphasis on technical courses, although many critics say they should not be included in the curriculum. Some of the larger schools in Nebraska will probably branch out with more courses, especially in the field of electronics, Dr. Decker said.

Voc-Ag Strong

Meanwhile, the vocational agricultural programs remain strong even though the chances of a student returning to the farm are diminishing. Some educators have estimated that only one in 3 farm boys can return.

Dr. Decker said generally the agricultural training programs are changing emphasis "to keep tuned with the times."

One encouraging fact, Dr. Decker said, is that about 75 per cent of the enrollment at Milford is composed of farm boys.

"It appears to be a fine solution for the boys that can't go back to the farm," he said.

KEN MAJOR FIRST WINNER OF GEORGE LEMON SCHOLARSHIP

Ken Allen Major, Madison senior, has become the initial winner of the George H. Lemon Memorial Scholarship at Nebraska Wesleyan University.

The annual award, carrying a stipend of $250, was created by an anonymous donor this year in memory of the late Mr. Lemon, A Wesleyan alumnus, long-time Lincoln business leader and vigorous supporter of competitive athletics and physical education at the college level.

President Vance D. Rogers said the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Major of Madison was selected because of his peculiar combination of skills as an athlete and as a scholar.

Major is a three year varsity basketball letter winner. During the past year he maintained a grade average of 1.60 on a scale ranging from a high of 1.00 to a low of 6.00.

In establishing the award—the only Wesleyan scholarship or grant specifically earmarked for a student in the physical education area — it was specified that the recipient must be of above freshman status academically, and must have maintained a grade average of 3.00 or above during the year previous to the grant.

Ken is a social science major with a minor in physical education. He was a 1957 graduate of Madison High School.

Weather Ahead

Nebraska temperatures for the next 5 days will average from near normal northeast to 4 to 6 degrees below normal west and south. Cooler late Friday or Saturday and warmer again Monday. Normal highs around 80; normal lows 55 in west to 58 in east. Precipitation will average .15 inch in west to .50 inch in east occurring as showers and thunderstorms in first part of period.

License Suspension Dates Are Changed

The State Liquor Commission Wednesday changed dates for suspension of liquor licenses of Robert and Norma Klein of Lincoln and Duffy's Tavern, Inc. of Omaha.

The Kleins' store was ordered closed from Sept. 1 to Sept. 14. Duffy's tavern will close from Sept. 3 to Sept. 16.

The commission said the stores could not reopen until all merchandising accounts exceeding 30 days in duration have been paid in full. The Kleins must also file the retailer's monthly report of credit for March, 1960.

Both licensees asked for the change in dates.

Reward At Last

Winooski, Vt. (UPI) — Air Force Sgt. Robert T. Moore, who promoted off-duty education for more than 1,600 fellow servicemen this year, finally received his own degree from St. Michael's College after 13 years of part time study.

17th Olympic Games Open In Regal Splendor Today

Rome (AP)—The 17th Olympic Games open today in regal splendor, hailed by two world leaders at opposite poles of ideology.

Pope John told 4,000 athletes and thousands of spectators in St. Peter's Square "may the best man win."

The pontiff, who was given a rousing cheer, declared his "very strong desire that the contests of these days will benefit you all, and that from them, all without exception will be able to gain some advantage."

Premier Nikita Khrushchev of Russia, in a message to the athletes from the Kremlin declared that the games "increase friendship and mutual understanding among the peoples and thus strengthen the peace of the world."

The stage has been set perfectly. The weather is bright The torch, lit by the sun on sacred Mount Olympus in Greece, has been brought to the Campidoglio, the Roman city hall on Capitoline Hill looking down on the ruins of the ancient Forum.

These are the biggest games ever held—nearly 8,000 athletes from 85 nations. They cost the most to stage — 32,000,000 dollars. They last until Sept. 11.

The Russians signalled for a truce such as was proclaimed in ancient Greece when wars ceased for the term of the Games.

Leonid Kominikov, a Soviet official, descended on the American sector of the Olympic village and told Kenneth L. Wilson, of Chicago, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee:

"As a symbol of our friendship we'd like to present you with our Olympic flag and wish your athletes the very vest of luck."

In other directions the Soviets eased the cold war, at least on the sports front.

They visited the Japanese camp in an unexpectedly friendly gesture, and also sent a delegation of 10 to the papal audience at St. Peter's, although the smaller Iron Curtain lands except Poland shunned the affair.

Russia also moved out boldly to bid for the 1968 games. Nikolai Romanov, chief of the Russian team, said he would ask the International Olympic Committee for the games.

Every indication points to a record smashing performance in these 1960 games in virtually all of the 18 different sports, and a titanic battle for unofficial team honors between the United States and Russia.

The Soviets lost in their first Olympic Appearance, in 1952 at Helsinki, but won in 1956 in Melbourne.

Up to recently they have been favored here but a late shift in sentiment points to a possible American victory.

Today is the great day of Olympic ceremony, when half of the competing athletes march in the glistening cement and marble stadium into which 100,000 are expected to jam their way.

The torch will be carried from the Capitoline Hill to light the flame that burns throughout the games, day and night.

President Giovanni Gronchi of Italy will proclaim open the games, cannon will boom, doves by the thousand will circle skyward, and Adolofo Consolini, Italy's Olympic discus champion of 1948, will take the oath of sportsmanship on behalf of all contestants.

Meanwhile, there was the usual milling about on the Olympic front.

Rome hotel owners reported to their amazement they had some vacant rooms. Rome, it seems, scared tourists away just as other Olympic cities have done.

Gina Lollobrigida, the glamorous Italian actress with an eye to publicity, thought it would be a fine idea to have an Olympic competition for the most beautiful man and woman.

The population of the village swelled to 6,000, with hundreds more due today.

Toweel Too Big For Jr. Welter

London (AP) — South African boxer Willie Toweel has turned down a New York fight with Carlos Ortiz for the world junior welterweight title at 140 pounds, his London agent, Bobby Diamond, said Wednesday.

"Willie told me he can no longer come in at 140 pounds," Diamond said. "He is a fully grown welterweight now."

Toweel, 26, was formerly British Empire lightweight champion.

Orioles Crack Detroit Skein

Baltimore (AP)—Young Jack Fisher tamed Detroit on 7 hits Wednesday night as the Baltimore Orioles moved into a tie for second place in the American League with a 9-2 victory over the Tigers.

The Baltimore triumph coupled with New York's 3-2 victory over Chicago left the Orioles and White Sox tied 1½ games back of the league-leading Yankees.

The Orioles bunched their 13 hits, scoring 5 runs in the second and 4 in the 7th, as they snapped a 7-game Tiger winning streak, the club's longest since 1956.

Brooks Robinson and Gene Woodling led the Bird hitters, Robinson slamming a 3-run triple and two singles and Woodling getting 3 singles and a walk.

Fisher, who evened his record at 9-9, had a shutout until the 9th when the Tigers scored twice on a walk to Al Kaline, a double by Rocky Colavito and a pinch single by Lou Berberet.

The Orioles blasted starter and loser Bob Bruce from the mound with 5 runs in the second . Robinson provided the crushing blow, a bases-loaded triple.

5 Legion Nines Set For Series

Hastings (AP) —Five teams have qualified for the 8-team American Legion Little World Series opening in Hastings Sunday with a twin-bill in the afternoon and another at night.

The 5 so far qualified are Hastings, New Orleans, Brooklawn, N.J., Miami and Berwyn, Ill.

Pairings will be made in Hastings when the other 3 qualifiers are determined in regional tourneys.

The Miami team arrived in Hastings early Wednesday and the Berwyn team was due to arrive Wednesday night.

ANOTHER SOUTHEAST SPECIAL?

Stu, Clemente Trigger Pirates

Chicago (AP)— Successive 9th inning homers by Dick Stuart and Roberto Clemente Wednesday propelled the Pittsburgh Pirates over the Chicago Cubs 10-6.

Each of the home runs sailed over the left field wall and came on first pitches by Don Elston, 3rd of 4 Cub hurlers who allowed a total of 17 hits, 7 for extra bases.

Stuart's 17th homer came after Bob Skinner doubled and had been replaced by pinch-runner Joe Christopher after hurting his leg sliding into second. Clemente's 4-bagger was his 10th.

The Cubs had locked the score 6-6 in a 3-run 7th that disposed of starter Vernon Law, seeking his 8th straight victory and 19th of the season. Elroy Face, 4th Pirate hurler, who held Chicago hitless the last two innings, got the decision.

Law, the majors' winningest pitcher, was lifted with the Bucs ahead 6-3. After getting two men out, he served a single to Bob Will—the 9th hit off him—and his first walk of the game, to Ernie Banks.

Fred Green replaced Law, whose 5 losses for the season include two to the Cubs. Green walked George Altman to load the bases and promptly was relieved by Clem Labine.

Rookie Ron Santo greeted Labine with a double to left center that cleared the bases and tied the score.

Frank Thomas was intentionally passed after Santo's blow. After the 3rd wide pitch, Labine started toward the plate to continue a jawing match with Thomas, but players from both sides interceded and kept the two apart. Don Zimmer flied out to retire the side.

Howe 1st Member Of Hockey Elite

Omaha (AP) — Gordon Howe was officially initiated Wednesday night as the first member of Omaha's Hockey Hall of Fame.

He was presented with a set of initialed cuff links by Robert Phipps, Omaha World Herald hockey writer, and replied with "a humble thank you, believe me."

Howe, who played for Omaha in the American Hockey League some years ago, is now a Detroit star in the National Hockey League. He has been the NHL's most valuable player 5 times.

MINOR LEAGUE CONSENSUS:

Expansion Won't Come Until 1962

Columbus O., (AP)— Minor league baseball clubs must proceed with 1961 planning without considering too strongly the 10-club expansion project of the two major leagues.

This was the consensus among 35 major and minor league baseball officials as they wound up a two-day meeting Wednesday.

The general feeling among the baseball officials was that there will be enough firm working agreements between major and minor league clubs in 1961 to take care of most of the present minor league structure.

Minor league president George M. Trautman, who presided over the annual sessions, called the meeting "Merely exploratory, as usual."

He added, however, that "just a year ago, farm director after farm director said he couldn't promise anything for 1960.

"Now it seems to be just the opposite. Maybe we have at last reached our correct level of operation as far as working agreements are concerned."

Concerning the major league expansion, one national league executive said, "We'll all (the major leagues) be ready to dig in and help realign the minors quickly when expansion comes.

"But, meanwhile, we can't sit back and wait for it. We've got to stay 'on time' without annual planning for the next season."

The majority of the major league officials on hand felt as Trautman did—that the majors won't be able to pull their big switch until 1962.

. . . LOPEZ, KUBEK SAFETIES OUTDO SIEVERS

New York (AP) — The New York Yankees regained their game and a half first place lead over Chicago Wednesday by defeating the White Sox 3-2 on Hector Lopez' two-run single and Tony Kubek's 10th home run of the season.

Art Ditmar pitched his 6th straight victory, but it took a clutch relief job by Luis Arroyo in the 9th to preserve the tall right-hander's 13th triumph of the year, his 3rd without a defeat over Chicago.

Ditmar hurled a strong 3-hitter through 8 innings but the White Sox got to him in the 9th, driving him from the mound with 3 hits after two out, including Roy Sievers' second home run of the game.

Sievers' 9th inning wallop, his 25th of the year, narrowed the Yankees' margin to 3-2.

When Al Smith and Minnie Minoso followed with singles, manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees quickly summoned Arroyo from the bullpen.

The little lefty threw only one pitch and Gene Freese hit it on the ground to second baseman Bobby Richardson, who tossed him out easily, ending the game.

Sievers got 3 of the White Sox' 6 hits off Ditmar. He doubled in the first, homered in the 4th and walked in the 7th for a perfect day.

He is now only 4 home runs away from the all-time White Sox season home run mark of 29 by Guz Zernial in 1950 and Eddie Robinson in 1951.

Score Loser

Herb Score was the Chicago starter and loser. The hard-luck left-hander was tagged for two runs in the first inning.

Walks to Kubek and Bill Skowron sandwiched around a single by Yogi Berra filled the bases with two out. Lopez then cracked a single to left scoring Kubek and Berra.

After Sievers' first home run reduced the Yankees' lead to 2-1, New York made it 3-1 in the 7th when Kubek lined a home run into the lower right field stands.

Score, losing his 8th game against 4 victories, walked 7 and fanned 3 before bowing out for a pinch hitter in the 8th. Gerry Staley finished up for the White Sox.

Ditmar fanned 3 and walked 3. He has allowed only 9 runs in the last 52 1-3 innings. He last lost on July 20.

White Sox manager Al Lopez was ejected from the game by plate umpire Larry Napp in the top of the 4th inning when he failed to heed Napp's admonishment to quiet down the Chicago bench.

—EARLY SEASON JINX RETURNS—

Rain Hits Chiefs, Twin Bill Tonight

By Don Bryant

Lincoln's Chiefs returned to early-season form Wednesday — forced out of action by the weather.

Sherman Field was thoroughly soaked by the early morning rainstorm and dampened again by an afternoon shower. Groundskeepers were unable to get on the field until 5 p.m., because of the mud, and they couldn't get the field playable.

So the scheduled game with Green Bay was postponed because of wet grounds, the 10th time this season the Chiefs have been kayoed by the elements.

Thus, it's a doubleheader at Sherman Field tonight, commencing at 6:30 p.m. Adding a musical note to the proceedings will be the Syracuse High School band.

Tonight is Savings Stamp Night. Stamps will be passed out as prizes between innings.

Lincoln skipper Ira Hutchinson is expected to pitch Ed Szcyzewski (5-8) and Al Brice (8-6) in the twin-dip, while Dodger manager Stan Wasiak will probably nominate Larry Williams (4-7) and Rick Warren (9-10).

Tonight's game will be the finale between the Chiefs and the Dodgers at Sherman Field.

Only games remaining in Lincoln are a trio with Topeka, Sept. 3-4-5.

ARIZIN SIGNS WARRIOR PACT

Philadelphia (AP) — Paul Arizin, 3rd highest scorer in National Basketball Assn. history has signed for his 9th season with the Philadelphia Warriors, club president Eddie Gottlieb announced Wednesday.

Arizin, who led the Warriors in scoring the 4 seasons, was overshadowed last season by Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain's sensational showing.

All the same, Gottlieb said, the club would not have made the playoffs without the 1,606 points and 22.3 average that Arizin contributed to the Warriors' second place Eastern Division finish last spring.

Roman Water Controversy Brewing

Rome (AP) — A great water controversy Wednesday gushed through Rome's Olympic Village.

The issue was:

British Olympic officials warned their athletes against drinking the water of the Eternal City.

"It's just a precaution," hedged a spokesman, "and we don't want to cast an aspersion on the local water board."

In an interview, he added:

"But it's true it takes time to get used to water of a foreign country and our boys are mostly on mineral water."

Mel Spence, Jamaican quarter miler commented:

"You won't catch me drinking this (Rome) water. It tastes like it's been through mud and sand."

Dutch athletes also ducked Rome's aqua. They also kept shy of Italy's delicious unpeeled fruit.

Although Canadian athletes have received no warnings, most of them are drinking mineral water, fruit juices and milk.

But, no wine, Italian or otherwise.

"Mineral water?" gasped Steve Witkowski, head trainer for the United States Olympic team,

"We ask our athletes not to drink it, but to drink Rome's water — right out of the faucet."

A spokesman for the Greek Olympic committee said:

"Italy has the best water system in Europe. Of course our boys drink the water."

Other pro-Roman water countries included:

Argentina, Denmark, Sweden, Finland, China, Philippines, United Arab Republic and Belgium.

Rout, But So What?

I don't believe Art Ronhovde has too much to worry about as far as the North team's poor Shrine Bowl permance ruining the game is concerned.

Ronhovde, of Fremont, was concerned that the 46-7 rout might hurt next year's crowd. His concern is understandable, since he wants to do the best job possible. He wanted his North gridders to put on a good show.

In reality, however, I don't believe a close contest is a necessity for the Shrine Bowl. It might be good, but not that important.

The basic reason anyone wishes to see an all-star game of any type is to see top stars perform. In baseball, they want to see spectacular play, home runs, good pitching, etc. Who wins is never all-important, even if you do have a favorite team.

It's the same in football. Long runs, good play, exciting action—these are the necessary ingredients for a good all-star game.

Supplied By Shrine Bowl

There can be no doubt that the Shrine Bowl game, even though a rout, supplied these ingredients. The fact that the South did most of the supplying is secondary.

The game held my interest all the way. Even at halftime, with the South holding a 19-7 lead, I wasn't sure the North wouldn't make a comeback. And they were still trying to put on a show at the end.

In many respects, primarily spectator interest via excitement, this year's rout topped last year's opening 7-6 victory for the South. That game had the close score, it was a contest. But, played mostly between the 30-yard stripes, it lacked the thrills of this year's game.

South Dominates . . . Now

The South now holds a 2-0 lead, but this shouldn't lead to any idea that the Southern teams have greater strength, or that the South will continue to dominate the Shrine Bowl.

Obviously, the South had the balance of power this year. But most observers still think the North actually had more talent a year ago. The South win wasn't conclusive evidence of strength.

I think the original division of the state by the Shrine Bowl, using Highway 30A-30, is a good one. The pendulum is likely to swing back and forth consistently, just as it does in the normal prep season.

An extremely long range view already indicates the North might have the edge next year. At least, the North undoubtedly will have Kent McCloughan of Broken Bow, expected to be this year's outstanding prep gridder.

McCloughan, 180-pound Class B sprint champ, was all-state last year as a junior, drawing raves everywhere he went. The North's turn will come.

Final Bow For Hohn

The selection of Bob Hohn of Beatrice as the Shrine Bowl's outstanding player was a fitting wrapup to his sensational prep career.

If there were any who could have doubted Hohn's choice as prep athlete of the year, his Shrine Bowl work should have erased any doubts.

It brought an end to a career which included all-state honors in football and basketball (2 years), plus 4 state first place track medals.

Pinson's Rap Drives Home Winning Run

San Francisco (AP)— Vada Pinson's two-out single scored rookie Gordon Coleman in the 13th inning Wednesday, giving Cincinnati a 3-2 victory over San Francisco.

Coleman started the 13th with a single up the middle, and after rookie Chico Cardenas laid down a sacrifice bunt, pinch hitter Gus Bell walked.

Billy Martin popped out, but then Pinson slammed the single that won the game.

Loser Mike McCormick went the distance, giving up 9 hits and two bases on balls.

The Giants unleashed an extra-base hit barrage off two of the 4 Redleg pitchers they faced, collecting 5 doubles and a triple.

Jim Brosnan, who pitched the 11th and 12th, got the victory—his 6th against two losses. McCormick lost his 9th against 11 triumphs.

Frank Robinson hit a first-inning homer, his 26th, for Cincinnati. The Redlegs added another run in the 4th when Robinson walked, Wally Post doubled and Ed Bailey hit a sacrifice fly.

Cincinnati starter Jim O'Toole faced only 3 men—Jim Davenport, who tripled, Joe Amalfitano, who popped out, and Willie Mays who doubled.

Joe Nuxhall went the next 9 2-3 innings and gave up 9 more hits including a 6th-inning double by Willie Kirkland that drove Orlando Cepeda in with the second Giant run.

Kansas City Capitalizes On Miscues

Washington (AP) — Kansas City, taking advantage of Washington errors, crammed its scoring into two big innings Wednesday night to defeat the Senators' ace right-hander Camilo Pascual, 6-4.

It was Pascual's 7th loss. He has won 12. The Cuban right hander had beaten the Athletics 3 times in 4 starts.

Howard's Homers Rip Braves, 5-3

Los Angeles (AP) — Frank Howard, the man who made Milwaukee furious, smashed two home runs Wednesday night as the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the Braves 5-3 before 27,626.

Howard has hit 20 home runs all season and 9 of them have come against Milwaukee. He has driven in 17 runs in 13 games against the Braves.

Lefthander Johnny Podres —who also got home run support from Tommy Davis and Wally Moon — stopped the Braves on 8 hits, one of them a two-run homer by Ed Mathews.

It was Mathews' 30th this season and it made him the only hitter in National League history to hit 30 or more homers in each of 8 consecutive seasons.

The loss put the second place Braves 7½ games behind league leading Pittsburgh. The Dodgers moved to within a half game of 3rd place St. Louis.

Patriots Boot Soergel

Amherst, Mass. (AP) — The Boston Patriots announced Wednesday the outright releases of Dick Soergel, Oklahoma State quarterback, and offensive end Carl Robinson of South Carolina State.

Flanker back Tom Stephens of Syracuse was placed on the reserve list indefinitely because of an injured knee.

Jimmie Foxx Hurt

Galesburg, Ill., (AP)—Jimmie Foxx, 53 former major league baseball star, was hospitalized Wednesday with a back injury received when he fell down basement stairs in his home. Foxx, reported in good condition, was to begin work with a horticultural nursery in Rocky River, O., today.

Romano Hits 2-Run Homer For 3-1 Win

Boston (AP) — Cleveland catcher John Romano's two-run homer furnished a 3-1 victory over Boston for batterymate Barry Latman Wednesday night.

Romano leaned into a fast ball from loser Tom Brewer and sent it just inside the right field foul like in the 7th inning, breaking a 1-1 deadlock.

The blow, on a 1-0 delivery, followed a double by Bubba Phillips — his 3rd straight hit of the game.

Latman (2-5) went the distance for the first time in 12 starts, striking out 7 while walking only one.

Two Hurlers Hold Cards To 5 Blows

. . . TAYLOR FIRES PHIL RALLY

St. Louis (AP) — Art Mahaffey and Chris Short stopped the St. Louis Cardinals on 5 hits and Tony Taylor, who also hit a home run, started an 8th-inning rally, giving the Philadelphia Phillies a 5-3 victory Wednesday night.

The victory snapped a run of 9 straight Redbird triumphs over the Phils.

The score was tied 2-2 when Taylor singled with one out. Tony Curry scored him with a double and Lindy McDaniel took over from Larry Jackson.

Curry held up at 3rd on Tony Gonzalez' double off the right field screen and Lee Walls was intentionally passed. Curry scored on Pancho Gonzalez' sacrifice fly and Gonzalez came across on Jim Coker's single.

Ken Boyer hit his 26th homer off Mahaffey in the Cards' half of the 8th and Moose Moryn singled with two down. But Short came in to preserve Mahaffey's 3rd victory.

McIntire, 4 Other Curtis Cuppers Win

Tulsa, Okla. (AP) — Defending champion Barbara McIntire led a brigade of Curtis Cup players into the quarterfinals of the National Women's Amateur golf championship Wednesday.

She defeated Sherry Wheeler 1 up in the 3rd round and eliminated Barbara Williams in the 4th round, 2 and 1.

Joining Miss McIntire in the round of 8 for today's matches were Curtis Cuppers Mrs. Ann Casey Johnstone, Anne Quast, JoAnne Gunderson and Judy Eller.

Judy Bell was the only member of the team to suffer defeat. She fell before 20-year-old Andrea Cohn, Waterloo, Ia., 5 and 4.

Raiders Hit Fast; Field Goals Win

Buffalo, N.Y. (AP) — The Oakland Raiders struck for 3 first period touchdowns, added two field goals and withstood a determined rally by Buffalo for a 26-21 American Football League exhibition victory Wednesday night.

Three times before the first period was 8 minutes old, the Raiders, directed by former Kentuckian Babe Parilli, smashed into scoring territory.

Parilli threw for two touchdowns and scored the 3rd.

The margin of victory was produced by Larry Barnes who booted two field goals of 27 and 42 yards.

Second round action in the tourney will continue Thursday.

Pro Bud Williamson of LCC also announced that first rounds in the men's best ball match play tourney must be completed by Aug. 28th, and that second rounds in the women's best ball match play tourney must be played by Aug. 30th.

All entrants in the LCC women's and junior girls tournament will qualify Tuesday, Aug. 30th, Williamson said. There will be flights—and consolation flights—for all women, both 18 and 9 hole title aspirants, as well as for the junior players.

U.S. Tracksters Limber Up In Roman Sunshine

Rome (AP) — America's Olympic track and field squad unlimbered travel-stiff muscles for the first time Wednesday in comforting Roman sunshine.

Their coach, Larry Snyder, nervous but pleased, called it a fine opening workout. He expects his entire squad to be at peak condition for Olympic competition which begins Aug. 31.

For an hour and a half, the Americans ran half speed relay trials, measured strides on the broad jump, high jump and pole vault runways, and loped around the red-brown oval or through the green infield.

Physically, the squad is shaping up.

The back injury nursed by sprinter Ray Norton of Oakland, Calif., favored for gold medals in the 100 and 200 meters, is not serious, Snyder said.

"It's a strain, but not a pull, and we are certain he will be ready."

Bragg Okay

Don Bragg of Pennsille, N.J. who has bettered the world pole vault record, pleased Snyder and himself with an effortless warm-up performance that belied his troublesome leg injury.

"I don't worry much about Bragg," Snyder said. "He's been around, and knows how to get himself ready. Winning a gold medal here means everything to him."

Leg troubles have bothered Glenn Davis, of Columbus, O., who will seek his second gold medal in the 400 meter hurdles. But he showed no sign of distress in an hour of half-speed striding.

No Thomas Fears

No fear either is held about the condition of lithe high jumper John Thomas. He was reported to have strained his back slightly in a recent California meet.

"It's nothing. He's fine," Snyder commented.

The head coach spent a lot of time in the broad jump area helping Ralph Boston, Irvin (Bo) Roberson and Tony Watson measure their strides.

"That Boston, he can jump 26 feet whether his last step is too short or whether he stretches it," Snyder remarked delightedly.

The shirtless Americans gloried in the workout under a blazing sun and clear blue sky.

"I love the heat, most everyone does," summed up Ira Davis of Philadelphia, the hop-step-jump man.

"The humidity isn't any greater than at home," Davis said. "We'll all be at our best if the weather is like this for the games."

Aggie Footballer Goes To Sooners

Houston, Tex. (AP) — The Houston Chronicle said Wednesday John Keller, former all-state football and basketball star at Terrell, Tex., will transfer from Texas A&M to Oklahoma University next month.

The Chronicle quoted Keller as saying at Terrell he decided to play football at Oklahoma after changing his college major from engineering to physical education.

"We hate to see John make the change but he feels he can accomplish more in football than he can in basketball," said Bob Rogers, A&M basketball coach.

Palmer Heads Pro List At Milwaukee

. . . $30,000 OPEN ON TODAY

Milwaukee (AP) — The professional golf trail makes its annual 4-day swing into Wisconsin today with Masters and National Open champion Arnold Palmer heading a field of 150 down to start in the $30,000 Milwaukee Open.

The invasion of Palmer and most of the other top touring pros figures to provide an explosion of par-shattering performances at the North Hills Country Club. The short but exacting 6,410-yard layout has a par 70 for tournament play.

Palmer, the all-time top money winner for one season with winnings of $73,600 this year, will be out to add $4,300 first prize to his earnings.

He has won 7 tournaments this year while surpassing the old record haul of Ted Kroll in 1956.

However, the 29-year old standout from Latrobe, Pa., faces stiff competition in the 72-hole test on the basis of practice rounds by his traveling companions. Par has been taking a beating the past couple of days.

Cary Middlecoff, a two-time U.S. Open champion and twice winner of the Milwaukee Open, tuned up with an impressive 18 holes in preparation.

Also showing well in drills were Gene Littler, the 1959 Milwaukee Open titlist and Ken Venturi, also a former Milwaukee winner.

Others on hand include Billy Casper Jr., the 1959 U.S. Open titlist who shot a 7 under par at a nearby course Monday; Jack Flec, the 1955 National Open king; Bob Rosburg, Art Wall Jr., Jerry Barber, Doug Ford, Tommy Bolt, Frank Stranahan and many more of the "name" pros.

Despite recent rains — and forecasts of thundershowers on the eve of the tournament's start — the North Hills course was pronounced in fine condition by Palmer and others.

The threat of rain had sponsors worried. Stormy weather last year delayed the event.

Russians To Bid For 1968 Games

Rome (AP) — Nikolai Romanov, chief of the Soviet Olympic team, Wednesday disclosed that Russia will ask to stage the 1968 Olympic Games in Moscow.

Romanov said the Soviet Union planned to make a formal proposal during "one of the next meetings" of the International Olympic Committee.

Ike Signs Bill Clearing Way For Kennedy-Nixon TV Debates

Washington (UPI) — President Eisenhower Wednesday removed the last legal obstacle to the historic Kennedy-Nixon television debates and said they would be a fine service in helping to put the campaign issues before the voters.

Eisenhower cleared the way for the TV networks to go ahead with the appearances when he signed into law a bill waiving the equal time provision of the broadcast law as it applies to the presidential and vice presidential races.

The major networks—NBC, CBS and ABC—volunteered 8 hours of free time during choice viewing hours for the debates provided they were relieved of the responsibility for giving the same opportunity to splinter party candidates.

Aides of Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy have been negotiating on the actual mechanics for some time but have reached no final conclusions — except to agree that they should not be spon-

Not For Minor Parties

The law was not intended to apply to minor party candidates, although some congressmen expressed the opinion that it might apply to local party managers for the presidential and vice presidential nominees.

Eisenhower, who announced the signing of the bill at his news conference, said he did not think the free time offered by the networks would necessarily "have to be in a debating atmosphere."

"I do think," he added, "that it is a very fine thing in the public service that the networks will be performing by allowing these people to do this on an equal time basis, and without cost.

Costs Up

"Actually, it seems to me over these years the cost of presenting the issues and cases and personalities to the public has gone way up, and if these networks can help out on this equal time basis, it will be a fine thing."

The President referred to estimates that the proposal would save the Republicans and Democrats from $4 million to $5 million combined. Heretofore, such appearances have been on a paid basis because of the equal time law.

A Nixon aide said that the Republican nominee does not want the debates sponsored. He made the statement after NBC reported some advertiser interest in the programs. A Kennedy aide took a similar stand some time ago.

Ex-Nebraskan Takes Peru Prep Assignment

Peru — L. Chris Bueth of Salinas, Calif., has been selected principal of the campus high school at Peru State Teachers College. He replaces Frank Masek who has accepted a teaching post at San Bernardino, Calif.

Buethe is a graduate of Seward High School, and holds degrees from Wayne State Teachers College and the University of Colorado. He began his teaching career at Brule.

Quite A Catch

Windsor, Ont. (AP) — Conservation officer G. T. Greenwood said Ray Elke of Detroit recently caught a 33-inch muskie and when he opened it found a full pint bottle of ale in the fish's stomach.

Stan Delaplane's POSTCARD

In Jerusalem, I applied for correspondent privileges at the trial of Adolf Eichmann. The trial is expected to begin next March and some thousand journalists will be there.

Hotel reservations cannot be confirmed yet. They can hardly be confirmed in the booming tourist season.

Tourist business is bringing Israel $15 million a year — second only to the leading $27 million citrus export.

"Do the tourists give you much trouble?"

"We are glad to have tourists," said the guide with a sigh. "That is our official policy. The tourist arrives. He says. 'I gave $100 to the United Jewish Appeal. Is Ben Gurion here to meet me?' "

☆ ☆ ☆

We drove down through the barren Negev desert. "Now we come to the Egyptian border," said the guide. "At the border will be an American tourist. He has borrowed the gun from the Israeli soldier.

"His wife will take a picture of him and he will show it at home. The defender of the border!"

We drove down to the Gaza strip where Israel rubs against Egypt.

The guide was right. Only the wife was holding the gun. The husband was photographing her.

☆ ☆ ☆

Progress is rapid in tourist business. A new Sheraton Hotel is going up in Tel Aviv — one of the liveliest of night towns.

De luxe resorts are building at Crusader ports where antique forts overlook the warm Mediterranean. Seaside villas rise beside excavated Roman cities.

Shops are bright with Israeli-made goods: Excellent ceramics, bracelets of turquoise-like stones from King Solomon's mines, hand-woven rugs and dress materials in desert colors and designs.

Costs are reasonable — de luxe hotel rooms average $10. Dinner with Mount Carmel wine and brandy, about $5.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Negev Desert is being reclaimed by co-operative farmers, the network of new roads lined with springing eucalyptus.

"Here is where David killed Goliath. The Philistine host was on that hill. Our people were over here. David took a pebble from that wadi and slew the champion. Would you like a pebble? Most tourists do — could be it's the same one.

"No," said the guide, "tourists are no trouble. That is our official policy. Last week I had two ladies from the States.

" 'Driver,' they said, 'could you fulfill a lifelong ambition we had since we were girls?'

" 'Sounds interesting,' I said. 'What's on your mind?'

" 'Could you drive us to the Pyramids?' they said.

" 'Lady,' I said, 'the Pyramids are in Egypt. If I drive you there, they would send me back a head shorter.'

"Tourists are no trouble at all," said the guide. "Now here is where Samson met Delilah. You can get a drink at the gas station there — they call it Samson's Inn. Do you know there are three men for every woman in Israel? Please print that for the lady tourist."

☆ ☆ ☆

It is easy touring country. Here the Bible is your best guide book. History lies at each turn in the road.

At Beersheba, Abraham pitched his tent . . . "and it came to pass the same day that Isaac's servants came and told him concerning the well they had digged and said unto him: We have found water. And he called it Shebah. Therefore the name of the city is Beer-Sheba unto this day.

Beersheba is the capital of the Negev today — a new city of factories rising beside the old city of Bedouin nomads and Arab coffee houses.

"But the reason tourists all come here is to see the Bedouin camels," said the guide. "Israel welcomes you. That is our official policy."

Powers' Parents Return; Rift With Wife Denied

From Press Dispatches

New York — The parents and sister of imprisoned U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers returned to the United States Wednesday denying reports of a rift with their son's wife but doubtful that she would succeed in her appeal to Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

Oliver W. Powers, a Pound, Va., shoemaker, his ailing wife and their daughter, Mrs. Jessica Hileman, arrived from Copenhagen, Denmark, aboard a Scandinavian Airlines jet.

They all pleaded weariness in refusing to hold a news conference, and when they were stormed by a small army of television and news photographers and radio and newspaper reporters, Powers angrily declared, "This is worse than Moscow."

The family left behind in Moscow Mrs. Barbara Powers, wife of the pilot sentenced to 10 years deprivation of liberty on his plea of guilty to spying.

Buys Fur Hat

Meanwhile, in Moscow Barbara Powers bought a fur hat today for her imprisoned husband.

"It's what he asked me for when I saw him yesterday," she said.

Barbara, with her lawyers, Frank Rodgers of Roanoke, Va., and Alexander Parker of Richmond, Va., spent most of the day shopping.

So far there has been no reply to her appeal that Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev receive her so she can plead for leniency for her husband.

The lawyers still pin their hopes on a petition to Presidium President Leonid Brezhnev, but they said they are having difficulty getting Barbara to complete it.

"She gets very nervous," said Rodgers, "but I am going to get her to finish it tonight no matter what. After all, you can't grant clemency until someone asks for it."

Departure Moved Up

An indication that the party is getting disheartened about the prospects was emphazied, however, when the Americans took steps to move up their departure to Friday. Earlier plans had called for them to leave Saturday.

In their reunion at the Supreme Court building, Powers asked his wife to go home by ship in order to get a good rest, and she started making arrangements. She hopes to be able to sail from a western European port early next week.

Besides the hat, which is of imitation fur of the type worn by most men here, Barbara also is trying to get heavy underwear, work shoes and a heavy parka for her husband.

She also went to the embassy to try to arrange shipments of food to the prison.

A GOOD TRY SUCCEEDS

Detroit (AP) — Traffic Judge George T. Murphy was impressed by the sincere attempt of Mrs. Mary Stanley, Detroit's self-styled "queen of the gypsies," to help her son pay $275 in traffic fines.

She explained she'd been able to pawn two watches for $200 but pawnbrokers refused to give her $75 for her impressive array of gold teeth.

Judge Murphy let her son Phillip, 20, off with the $200. He had accumulated 55 tickets.

Private Rites Held For Hammerstein

Hartsdale N.Y. (UPI)—A private funeral service was held here Wednesday for Oscar Hammerstein II, the Broadway lyricist whose songs have given pleasure and comfort to millions.

Howard Lindsay, friend and theatrical associate of Hammerstein, said in a eulogy: "As certain as one can be about a contemporary, I am convinced that Oscar Hammerstein had greatness."

Approximately 50 relatives and family friends attended the service in Ferncliff cemetary, 25 miles north of New York.

Don't Steal From Judge

London (UPI) — Thomas Boyle, 34, was sentenced to a year in prison for stealing a pistol and a bottle of whisky from the home of Lord Parker, Britain's lord chief justice.

WILLY BRANDT WILL OPPOSE ADENAUER

Bonn, Germany (AP) — Socialists leaders chose West Berlin's Mayor Willy Brandt as their candidate for chancellor to oppose Konrad Adenauer in near year's election. Accepting, Brandt promptly announced he is an unwavering defender of the Western alliance.

Obviously replying to charges by the ruling Christian Democrats that a Socialist government would lead West Germany out of NATO, Brandt told the session of party leaders that nominated him:

"Our place is inside the system of Western society and the system of Western security. The alliance with the United States remains the absolute center of our foreign policy."

The 46-year-old Brandt will try next year to wrest the nation's leadership from 84-year-old Adenauer, whose Christian Democrats have run West Germany ever since the country was formed 11 years ago.

Adenauer is old enough to be Brandt's grandfather. Both men are vigorous foes of Communism and there is little difference in their ideas on foreign policy.

The socialists, who are swinging away from the old-line Marxist leadership which has lost every election in which they participated since 1928, were enthusiastic over Brandt's nomination.

Medical Aid Conferees Said Near Agreement

Washington (AP) — Senate-House conferees were reported late Wednesday to have accepted largely the Senate version of a medical aid plan for needy old persons.

The conferees met for more than 4 hours but did not finish with the legislation. Another session was set for Thursday morning.

The major provisions of the bill deal with increased federal grants to help pay medical costs for old persons on the public assistance relief rolls or with such low incomes that they cannot handle these costs.

The conferees were understood to have accepted the more liberal formulas for these grants worked out in the Senate Finance Committee.

However, they have not agreed so far to an amendment added on the floor by Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La) to let the grants be used for the mentally ill and for tuberculosis patients.

Long, a conferee, was fighting vigorously for his proposal. Other conferees said this was the principal stumbling block to a final agreement.

The conference was called quickly Wednesday afternoon after the House authorized it. The Senate only passed the measure Tuesday night.

The Senate rejected broad rival Democratic and Republican medical cares before passing the bill with the limited programs for benefits for low income elderly persons.

'State Could Trim Cost By Trimming Its Trees'

... Institution Labor Eyed

Charles Leeman, chairman of the Nebraska Board of Control, said Wednesday the state could save "a lot of money" if it went into the tree trimming and spraying business for itself with institution labor.

Leeman said a truck with spraying equipment and saw attachments would cost about $4,000, but would more than pay for itself the first year by doing tree work at the state's institutions now hired to be done by commercial firms.

For example, he said, the tree trimming job at the State School for the Deaf in Omaha alone is expected to cost several thousand dollars this year. A firm had done about half the annual trimming job when a big wind came along and tore down more branches, with the result that it all had to be done over again.

More Thorough

Besides saving money, the state's own crew, operated possibly by Penitentiary trusties, could do a more thorough job and keep the institutions looking better, he said.

The plan is still in the "talking stage," Leeman said, as is the proposal to set up road camps with Penitentiary trusties to do work at state parks and recreation areas.

Leeman said both he and Warden Maurice Sigler believe road camps would be "a good thing," especially in providing jobs to keep inmates busy, a constant problem.

Trailer Houses

The state could set up the camps in trailer houses which could move from one area to another. At present, the trusties usually return to the prison each night when engaged in outside work. This is tiring for both prisoners and guards when the distances are long, Leeman said.

The idea is not new, but discussions in former years have always brought some complaints from various Nebraska residents.

Other states use outside mobile camps successfully, Leeman said, and the time may come when Nebraska will do so too.

18 Paratroopers Injured In Drop

Ft. Bragg, N.C. (AP)—About 300 Strategic Army Corps paratroopers drifted off their drop zone Wednesday, some of them landing in trees, in the final big airdrop of joint Army-Air Force war games.

But the Army said the ratio of injuries was no greater among those paratroopers than among other units of the 3,700 men of the 82nd division who jumped.

Eighteen persons were admitted to the Womack Army Hospital. Another 5 or 10 were treated and released.

State, Justice Funds OKd

Washington (UPI) — Congress Wednesday passed and sent to the White House a $705,032,567 appropriations bill to run the State and Justice Departments during the current fiscal year.

The Senate approved the measure by a voice vote after the House acted earlier Wednesday.

The measure was a compromise between differing amounts previously passed by the House and Senate and fell $27,997,828 below the total sought by the administration.

Included was $850,000 for the federal Civil Rights Commission, $70,000 more than was allotted last year but $145,000 less than the administration requested.

The adminstration indicated, however, that it was satisfied with the new allotment when it failed to appeal to the Senate to restore the House cut.

Other reductins included $15,188,856 in the State Department's budget and $2,879,820 in the Justice Department requests. The U.S. Information Agency was cut by $5,804,200 and the judiciary by $2,565,800.

The bill carried $10 million for the east-west cultural center in hawaii.

State Liquor Stores Federal Tax Cut

Washington (UPI) — The House Wednesday agreed unanimously to cut federal taxes on liquor stores operated by state or local governments.

It passed and sent to the Senate a bill that would grant about $120,000 a year in tax relief to 16 states and to county governments in two other states which operate liquor stores.

The bill provides that such governments need pay only one $54 dealer tax each year, regardless of the number of stores operated. The tax now is levied on each store.

Evaluation To Be Christian Service Thursday Feature

An evaluation of the week's activities at the Nebraska Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service School of Missions and Christian Service will highlight the Thursday sessions.

Wilford C. Hawkins, director of the Epworth Village at York, spoke to the group Wednesday night. A campus sing also was a feature of the evening.

'Caught In Fever'

Norwich, England (UPI)—City Fire Chief Gerald Hinde was fired for driving a hose truck 538 miles to see a championship soccer game. "I am not normally a rabid soccer fan but I guess I got caught up in the championship fever," Hinde said.

23 Hurt As Train Derails

Indiana Harbor, Ind. (UPI)—A speeding New York Central passenger train lurched off its tracks with 130 persons aboard Wednesday and 23 persons were injured.

The 11-car Cleveland-to-Chicago train was racing behind two disel locomotives at 80 miles an hour when it jumped the tracks in the heart of the South Chicago steel producing area.

The train skidded for a half mile, tearing up track as it went. Four of the passengers cars ended up at a tilt.

Seats were ripped out and baggage was sent flying as the cars lumbered along the road bend.

Most of those injured appeared to be suffering from minor abrasions or shock. There were no serious injuries immediately reported.

South Africa Catholic Prelate Hits Racism

London (AP)—The Roman Catholic archbishop of Durban, the Most Rev. D. E. Hurley, assailed the color bar in South Africa.

He told a news conference that white Christians in South Africa had failed to apply their basic rules of behavior to the community in which they lived and added:

"We failed to see the racial situation developing. As a churchman I would say our greatest need and duty is to face that situation and train our people to see racialism Christianized."

Ike Sees Hope In Cuba Crisis

. . . President Cites Long Friendship

Washington (AP) — President Eisenhower saw hope Wednesday for solving the crisis with Cuba. He called on the American nations to jointly press their influence for a solution.

Eisenhower spoke on the Cuban question at a news conference while Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, in Costa Rica, was uring the organization of American States to show concern over Cuba's promotion of communism.

Eisenhower spoke of the Monroe Doctrine — the 137-year-old U.S. declaration against foreign intervention in this hemisphere — and said that "when the chips are finally down" any American government can look after its own interests.

But the President said he would by no means admit "that this situation is irretrievable." He would not even rule out a summit meeting with Cuba's Premier Fidel Castro and other American heads of government, if this would prove useful.

"Cuba has been one of our finest friends," he continued. "We were the ones that conducted the (Spanish-American) war that set them free. And when they got in trouble, we had an occupation, back about 1908, and again we set them on their feet, and set them free. And we have had a long history of friendly relationship, and we have tried to keep our hands out of their internal political affairs . . .

"So I would think that the very welfare of the Cuban people finally demands some kind of composition of the difficulties between the American states, including our own on the one hand, and Cuba on the other."

Downfall Of Trujillo Predicted

Washington (AP)—Downfall of the 30-year rule of Dominican dictator Rafael Trujillo was predicted Wednesday by Douglas Dillon, acting secretary of state. The United States joined other hemisphere nations in plans aimed at isolating the strong man and driving him from power.

Dillon called Trujillo a tyrant, torturer and murderer. He reminded the House Agriculture Committee that hemisphere nations denounced Trujillo only last week, called for a break in diplomatic relations with his regime and branded him as one of the plotters of an assassination attempt against Venezuela's popularly elected president, Romulo Betancourt.

Almost at the same time Dillon was urging the house committee to apply economic sanctions on sugar purchases from Trujillo's domain, Sens. Allen J. Ellender (D-La) and James O. Eastland (D-Miss), who have often defended Trujillo, were praising him in the Senate.

Consultants From Minneapolis Meet With LG Officials

A representative of Hamilton and Associates, Minneapolis hospital consultants, arrived in Lincoln Wednesday to meet with department heads of the Lincoln General Hospital.

Fred A. McNamara of Washington, D.C., consulted department directors of the hospital Wednesday to gather facts which will be the basis of construction planning on the $1 million addition.

McNamara, who will be in Lincoln until Friday, indicated that long-term study and consultations will precede any planning for the new 3-story hospital addition.

Nixon Welcomes Kennedy Group's Aid For African Student Exchange

Detroit (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon told a news conference "there is room for everybody" in the nation's student exchange program "and I welcome any foundation in this work, whether it be the Kennedy Foundation or the Rockefeller Foundation."

The Kennedy Foundation was set up by the family of Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democratic nominee for president; the Rockefeller Foundation by the family of Nelson Rockefeller, Republican governor of New York. Nixon is the Republican nominee for president.

The Kennedy Foundation has offered to provide $100,000 for 250 African students to come to this country, while the United States sends technicians to Africa.

Scott Criticism

Sen. Hugh Scott, Pennsylvania Republican, criticized the Kennedy Foundation for what he described as a move made for political gain after the State Department had offered support.

Kennedy replied that the foundation acted only after the State Department had refused the necessary money and countercharged that the department offered funds only after learning of the foundation's offer.

Nixon said he hoped both the Kennedy Foundation and the State Department participated in the program.

"I would like increased student exchange with Africa and other underdeveloped areas," Nixon said in reply to a question, then continued:

'Training Needed'

"Pouring money into these areas without their having trained government and business personnel is like pouring money down the drain. Africa's most critical problem is not economic development or military strength, but the development of trained personnel to administer the country.

"I welcome any foundation in this work, whether it be the Kennedy Foundation or the Rockefeller Foundation . . . I hope they stay with it. There is room for everyone.

"The number of African students who come to the United States and the rest of the free world is pitifully small, compared with the number who go to Russia for training."

Dog Warns Of Fire But Dies In Blaze

San Bruno, Calif. (AP)—Spot, a fox terrier, smelled smoke in an apartment early Wednesday. He started barking.

Twenty-six persons, aroused by the dog, fled the flames. Firemen battled more than 3 hours before the fire was out.

In the embers, Deputy Fire Chief Lee Moore found Spot's body.

"You'd think somebody would have got him out," Moore lamented.

Russ Space Ship Said 'Peace Ship'

London (AP) — Moscow says the Russian space ship is a peace ship — and anyone searching for madmen drafting plans for military bases in outer space should look in the "madhouse of the Pentagon."

Moscow Radio broadcast these observations from the leading editorial of the Communist Party newspaper, Pravda.

Pravda said the time is not far off "when a grateful homeland will greet and honor its first valiant sons returning to their native land from the first space flight.

An oil co... discovered that ice cubes make a good pipeline cleaning agent. Oilmen pumped 400 pounds of cubes through a 10-inch line, and the pipe was cleaned at less cost than with chemicals.

Stocks' Rise 4th Straight

New York (AP) — The stock market weathered some profit taking and bulled ahead Wednesday for its fourth straight rise. Trading was active.

Losses by the aircraft-missile stocks and some other recent gainers failed to dampen the resurgent buying drive. Coppers, previously neglected, came to the fore. Autos continued very active and most were higher.

Steels, oils, electrical equipments, some of the favored drugs and other issues helped boost the averages.

An estimated 1½ billion dollars was added to the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, based on the rise in the Associated Press average.

Volume held at a relatively high 3,500,000 shares compared with Tuesday's 3,560,000.

Continuing a technical performance that has astonished Wall Street, more gains than losses were posted for the 15th straight session, the score being 619 to 380. The market remained broad with 1,132 issues traded. New highs for the year totaled 84 and new lows five.

The Dow Jones industrial average rose 2.27 to 641.56, effectively scaling a feared resistance level on the upside.

The AP 60-stock average gained 1.10 at 225.20 with the industrials up 1.90, the rails up .20 and the utilities up .40 to another new high for the year.

American Stock Exchange prices were mostly higher as volume continued to increase, totaling 1,400,000 shares compared with 1,310,000 Tuesday.

Corporate bonds were selectively higher in fairly active trading.

U.S. government bonds dropped after a four-day rise. Trading was light.

Bond volume reached $5,740,000 par value, not far below Tuesday's two-month high of $5,820,000.

CHICAGO

Chicago (AP)—All of Wednesday's 25 cent decline in butcher hog prices was on weights under 230 lbs and it took the market down to its lowest peak in more than three months.

With a poor shipper demand for the 5,000 head on sale, only about 75 head of 200-230 lb mixed No. 1 and 2 grades brought the $16.75 top, off 25 cents from Tuesday's high.

The 200-260 lb mixed 1-2 and mixed 1-3 grades sold up to $16.65 and the 200-280 lb lots up to $16.25. Sows were steady at $12.75-15.75.

The slaughter steer supply went at steady prices. Two loads of 1,250 lb primes brought the $26.75 top. High choice and mixed choice and prime kinds were $24.50-26.50, good to average choice $21.50-25.

Heifers were steady to 25 cents lower, vealers steady and bulls 25 to 50 cents lower. Heifers were $20-25.50 for good to mixed high choice and prime, vealers $22-25 for good and choice, bulls $16.50-20.50 for utility and commercial.

Spring slaughter lambs were steady to 25 cents lower. Choice and prime sold up to $21, mixed good and choice up to $19. Ewes topped at $4.50.

Religious Smear Campaign May Be Worst Ever, Committee Reports

By George W. Cornell

New York (AP) — Evidence was reported piling up Wednesday that circulation of religious smear material in the current campaign may exceed that of any presidential contest in American history.

"The circulation of rabidly anti-Catholic material already is many times greater than we've ever seen it," said Bruce L. Felknor, executive director of the Fair Campaign Practices Committee.

"We think at this point there is a substantial danger that the campaign in 1960 will be dirtier on the religious issue than it was in 1928."

That was when Democrat Al Smith, a Roman Catholic, was defeated by Republican Herbert Hoover, a Quaker. Again this year, a Roman Catholic, Democrat John F. Kennedy, is running against a Quaker, Republican Richard M. Nixon.

The fair campaign committee, which screens questionable material received from throughout the country, reported the appearance of such items was increasing at a startling rate.

"It's becoming much more virulent and overt," Felknor said in an interview. "What's so disturbing is that so much of this garbage is showing up so much earlier than it habitually does in an election."

Ordinarily, he said, when such material has been circulated in state or congressional elections, the bulk of it has shown up only a week or two before the voting, since it is of a type that can be exposed and discredited if time allows.

"But this time, there's been a great volume of strong anti-Catholic material right in the post convention period," he said.

With the campaign barely underway, he said, experience suggests an "awful deluge" of such material just before the election.

He said the committee had been led to believe that the main wave of it may come on Reformation Day, Oct. 30, the day marking the Protestant Reformation. Felknor, an active Presbyterian, added:

"Every indication is that the anti-Catholic component in this campaign is going to be a wretched one."

He said that in the Al Smith campaign, factors other than religion figured in the opposition to him, such as his Tammany Hall connections, his lower east-side New York accent, the fact he was a second-generation American and a "wet."

Any anti-Catholic sentiment could be channeled into these other aspects, Felknor said, "and so sheer religion never got the airing it might have." But in the present contest, none of the alternative stereotype factors exist, Felknor added, and anti-Catholic impulses are brought into the open.

He said the anti-Catholic materials this year already exceeded the volume of any year since the committee was set up in 1954, and "from what we can reconstruct, in a review of history, is greater at this stage than in 1928."

He emphasized there was no indication that any of the material in question came from responsible Republican quarters.

As for commentators who maintain religion will not be an issue, however, Felknor said the facts indicate just the reverse. "It unequivocably will be," he said.

The privately supported, non-partisan, committee which seeks to prevent unfair campaign tactics, is backed by both major parties.

The inflamatory items so far, he said, have concentrated on Catholicism, and none has been found slamming Quakers.

Kennedy Forces Plan Committee On Religion

Washington (UPI) — Sen. John F. Kennedy's camp announced a plan Wednesday to meet the religious issue head-on with detailed answers to every religious question raised during the presidential campaign.

Pierre Salinger, Kennedy's press assistant, said the candidate's forces will organize a "campaign section to deal broadly with the religious problem."

Salinger explained the religious committee will "clear up" any questions raised by voters. He said answers would be written to all inquiries to questions such as "aid to parochial schools and an ambassador to the Vatican."

At the same time, Salinger was asked at his afternoon news briefing if Kennedy was "more worried" now about religion being more of an issue in the campaigns than before.

"No," Salinger answered.

The discussion about the religious issue came after Salinger announced that Kennedy conferred with C. Emanuel Carlson, executive director of the Baptist joint committee on public affairs, and the committee's press officer, W. Barry Garrett.

Salinger described Carlson's committee as a "public information committee" serving Baptist groups around the country.

Garrett said Kennedy and Carlson had agreed that "political power as a means to religious ends" should be renounced by all churches.

He said they agreed on a statement saying such a renunciation "would greatly improve the political climate and would seem to be a legitimate request by both political parties."

Garrett said Kennedy and Carlson conferred for 30 minutes on "many of the problems involved in the religious issue." He did not spell these out but said a statement would be issued later.

Salinger said the Kennedy religious committee would operate under the "community relations section of the campaign." The chairman of the new committee was expected to be announced next week, Salinger said.

Board Of Control AndWelfareHead To Meet Monday

The Board of Control and the Director of Public Welfare will meet Monday to discuss Governor Brooks' request for a survey of the state's assistance standards.

Frank Woods, director of public welfare, said his office has been doing some preliminary studies in preparation for the meeting.

The studies consist of reviewing the state's standards in assistance benefits compared with costs of living in Nebraska, Woods said.

He said usual procedure of his office is to make periodic checks in the state to keep up with the changing costs of living.

Check Prices

These checks include going to clothing and grocery stores and finding out the latest prices of the products sold. These prices are then compared with standards set by the U.S. Department of Agriculture on what a person needs to live adequately, Woods said.

Board of Control Member Mrs. Ethel Kirwin said the board has discussed the problem of the state's assistance program several times. She said she was "happy and pleased" with the governor's request.

The governor asked the two agencies to make recommendations on any appropriate administrative adjustments concerning the state's public assistance program.

Lincolnite Home Friday From RC European Jaunt

Bob Bell, Lincoln Northeast junior, will return to the United States Friday from a 6-week European study visit.

He is one of 14 students selected by chapters throughout the United States on the basis of their Red Cross and school activities.

High points of the study visit were a 10-day training center held at Chiemsee, Germany, and a trip to the League of Red Cross Societies Headquarters at Geneva, Switzerland.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Bell of 3820 Vine.

Million Missing

Berlin (UPI) — The Organization for Returned Soldiers reported that more than 1,000,000 soldiers of Germany's World War II army still are missing, most of them behind the iron curtain. An organization spokesman said 1,198,000 soldiers—and an additional 383,500 prisoners of war and confined persons, never have been accounted for.
